Case Summary

On March 27, 2018, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB over the phone.

On March 20, 2018, at approximately 11:30 a.m., § 87(2)(b)'s daughter, § 87(2)(b) left § 87(2)(b) because she was not feeling well. In the vicinity of Campus Road and East 27th Street, in Brooklyn, PO Chanel Grenade and PO Goldy Felix, of the 70th Precinct, stopped § 87(2)(b) and requested her school ID. PO Grenade and PO Felix instructed § 87(2)(b) to get into their NYPD school van and § 87(2)(b) refused. PO Grenade and PO Felix grabbed § 87(2)(b) and attempted to push her into the van, placed her into handcuffs, and then dragged her into the van (Allegations A and B: Force, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) was arrested for § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(a) 160.50.

En route to the 70th Precinct stationhouse, PO Grenade said to PO Felix in reference to § 87(2)(b) "She's lucky I didn't slam her ass to the ground," (Allegation C: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g)). PO Grenade called § 87(2)(b) and informed her that § 87(2)(b) was at the 70th Precinct stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) requested PO Grenade's name over the phone and PO Grenade did not provide it (Allegation D: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)).

At the 70th Precinct stationhouse, § 87(2)(b) was upset and Det. Jesus Roldan brought her a bottle of water. Det. Roldan told § 87(2)(b) "You need to calm down, and I'm going to have you speak to the sergeants in a while, but you need to remember that they think all Hispanics and blacks are ghetto. I know you're classy. I heard you speak, so you need to calm down before you speak to them. They think we're all like that, and you need to show them that you're classy. Just be the classy lady I know you are," (Allegation E: Offensive Language, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) told Det. Roldan that she wanted to file a complaint against PO Grenade and PO Felix. Det. Roldan told § 87(2)(b) that they did not have any complaint forms and instructed her to call the CCRB (Allegation F: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) repeatedly asked PO Grenade for her name and shield number inside the stationhouse. PO Grenade did not provide her name or shield number to § 87(2)(b) as per Sgt. Sazedur Rahman's instruction (Allegations G and H: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g); Allegations I and J: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)).

Video footage of this incident was obtained from Brooklyn College (Board Reviews 01 through 03), § 87(2)(b)'s Facebook account via IAB (Board Review 04 and 05), and from the 70th Precinct stationhouse (Board Reviews 06 through 08).

This case was classified as a sensitive case due to press coverage of the incident (Board Reviews 09 through 12).

IAB conducted a concurrent investigation of this incident under IAB Log #2018-11520 and closed the force allegations as unsubstantiated (Board Review 13).

Findings and Recommendations

A CCRB Attorney was consulted regarding all allegations.

Allegation (A) Force: At Campus Road and East 27th Street, in Brooklyn, Police Officer Chanel Grenade used physical force against § 87(2)(b).

Allegation (B) Force: At Campus Road and East 27th Street, in Brooklyn, Police Officer Goldy Felix used physical force against § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on April 2, 2018 (Board Review 14), and provided a follow up statement over the phone on April 19, 2018 (Board Review 15). On March 20, 2018, at approximately 11:30 a.m., § 87(2)(b) was in the middle of her school day at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn. § 87(2)(b) was not feeling well and texted § 87(2)(b) that she wanted to go home. § 87(2)(b) exited § 87(2)(b) to walk home. In the vicinity of East 27th Street and

Campus Road, in Brooklyn, PO Grenade and PO Felix stopped § 87(2)(b) and asked for her ID, which she provided. PO Grenade had § 87(2)(b)'s ID for over two minutes. § 87(2)(b) informed PO Grenade that § 87(2)(b) gave her permission to leave school and that PO Grenade could speak with § 87(2)(b) if she wanted. § 87(2)(b) texted § 87(2)(b) to let her know that she had been stopped by the police. § 87(2)(b) immediately called § 87(2)(b) after receiving the text message and instructed § 87(2)(b) to put the call on speakerphone, which § 87(2)(b) did. § 87(2)(b) introduced herself as § 87(2)(b)'s mother, which § 87(2)(b) believed the officers could hear because the speaker was loud. Without acknowledging that § 87(2)(b) was on the phone, PO Grenade and PO Felix grabbed § 87(2)(b) one holding § 87(2)(b)'s left shoulder and one holding her right shoulder. The officers were trying to hold § 87(2)(b) down. § 87(2)(b) was struggling because she was trying to hold onto her phone. The officers started grabbing § 87(2)(b)'s arms and continued to try to hold her down, causing her to bend over forwards. While using force against § 87(2)(b) PO Grenade and PO Felix told § 87(2)(b) to get into the van, but they had not instructed her to get inside the van prior to making contact with her. § 87(2)(b) started screaming to § 87(2)(b) on the phone, telling her that the officers were grabbing her phone, pulling her hair, and pulling her jacket. PO Grenade told § 87(2)(b) she was going to be placed into handcuffs. PO Grenade and PO Felix placed § 87(2)(b) into handcuffs while she was standing on the step into the back-passenger door of the police van. After placing her into handcuffs, PO Grenade and PO Felix pushed § 87(2)(b) into the van.

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on April 2, 2018 (Board Review 16). § 87(2)(g)

The other students who were in the police van when PO Grenade and PO Felix used force against § 87(2)(b) were uncooperative with the investigation or unavailable and did not provide statements.

PO Grenade was interviewed at the CCRB on June 28, 2018 (Board Review 17). PO Grenade and PO Felix were assigned to truancy and were in the vicinity of East 27th Street and Campus Road, in Brooklyn. PO Grenade was outside the vehicle stopping students while PO Felix was sitting in the front passenger seat of the police van, writing truancy cards for the students who they had picked up at other locations. PO Grenade explained that the student IDs note a schedule and end time on the back. PO Grenade stopped § 87(2)(b) and a male student, whose IDs were blank on the back and did not note when they were allowed to leave school. PO Grenade asked § 87(2)(b) and the male student if they were done with school before she called the school. The male student admitted that he was not done with school. § 87(2)(b) told PO Grenade that she was done with school. PO Grenade called the Dean's office and the secretary, § 87(2)(b) confirmed that both § 87(2)(b) and the male student were not done with school for the day. § 87(2)(b) informed PO Grenade that § 87(2)(b) was supposed to be in school until 3:20 p.m. § 87(2)(b) did not make any statements to PO Grenade other than that she was done with school. § 87(2)(b) never told PO Grenade that she had permission to leave school early. PO Grenade explained that, if a student has permission to leave school early, they will receive a slip from the school documenting that they could leave school before their scheduled end of day. § 87(2)(b) never showed PO Grenade any slip noting that she could leave school early on the date of this incident. While PO Grenade was on the phone with § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) was on the phone. PO Grenade was continuing to stop students while she was on the phone and did not listen to what § 87(2)(b) was saying on the phone. PO Grenade never spoke with the person § 87(2)(b) had been on the phone with. PO Grenade denied that § 87(2)(b) ever put the phone on speakerphone. PO Grenade never heard someone on § 87(2)(b)'s phone say that she was her mother. PO Grenade never heard someone say from § 87(2)(b)'s phone that she gave her permission to leave school early. PO Grenade denied that § 87(2)(b) ever stated before she was in the van that she was not feeling well and had permission from her mother to go home. § 87(2)(b) repeatedly stated that she was done, asked if she could go, and asked for her ID. PO Grenade never tried to speak with § 87(2)(b)'s mother prior to arriving at the stationhouse.

Approximately five minutes after stopping § 87(2)(b) PO Grenade told the male student and § 87(2)(b) to get into the van. The male complied. PO Grenade did not know if § 87(2)(b) was on the phone, but § 87(2)(b) had the phone in her hand and not up to her ear. § 87(2)(b) refused to get in the van and told PO Grenade that she did not know who she was. PO Grenade told § 87(2)(b) that she was a police officer and verbally instructed § 87(2)(b) to get into the van five or six times. § 87(2)(b) still refused to get into the van, so PO Grenade attempted to guide § 87(2)(b) into the van with an open palm against her back. PO Grenade was standing behind § 87(2)(b) who was between PO Grenade and the open side doors to the van. § 87(2)(b) yelled and screamed that she was not getting into the van and told PO Grenade not to touch her. § 87(2)(b) told the person on the phone that the officers were hurting her and making her get into the van. § 87(2)(b) moved her arms over her shoulders and backwards to prevent PO Grenade from guiding her into the van and to brush PO Grenade off her. § 87(2)(b) did not strike or hit PO Grenade, or make further contact with PO Grenade. PO Felix exited the van to assist PO Grenade. PO Grenade and PO Felix pushed § 87(2)(b) into the van, making contact with her back. PO Grenade and PO Felix sat § 87(2)(b) in the front row seat inside the van. § 87(2)(b) sat for a second, but then attempted to get out of the van. PO Grenade looked around and saw that the other students looked scared. PO Grenade decided to place § 87(2)(b) into handcuffs for PO Grenade's safety. At that time, PO Grenade also decided that § 87(2)(b) was being placed under arrest for Obstructing Governmental Administration (OGA). PO Grenade took § 87(2)(b) out of the van and placed her into handcuffs. § 87(2)(b) resisted being placed into handcuffs by pulling her hands away. PO Felix helped PO Grenade place § 87(2)(b) into handcuffs. PO Grenade had to pin § 87(2)(b) against the door to the van to place her into handcuffs. § 87(2)(b) was facing the door and handcuffed behind her back. Once in handcuffs, § 87(2)(b) sat in the van and no longer attempted to get out. PO Grenade denied that she or PO Felix ever pulled § 87(2)(b)'s hair. PO Grenade denied that she or PO Felix ever hit § 87(2)(b).

PO Felix was interviewed at the CCRB on August 1, 2018 (Board Review 18). § 87(2)(g) PO Felix did not remember if § 87(2)(b) ever stated that she had permission to leave school early. PO Felix did not remember if § 87(2)(b) was ever on the phone during the incident. PO Felix did not remember if § 87(2)(b) identified herself as § 87(2)(b)'s mother over the speakerphone. PO Felix's statement was consistent with PO Grenade's regarding the level of force used against § 87(2)(b).

The arrest report prepared by PO Felix (Board Review 19) noted that § 87(2)(b) swung her arms and pushed her body in the opposite direction while screaming, "I don't know you. Don't touch me. I'm not getting in the van."

Video from Brooklyn College surveillance cameras (Board Reviews 01 through 03) depicted § 87(2)(b) speaking with the officers and PO Grenade grabbing her arm and pulling her towards the police vehicle. The doors of the police vehicle obstruct the view of most of the force used by officers against § 87(2)(b).

Force Clip 1.mp4

Video from § 87(2)(b)'s Facebook Page received from IAB (Board Reviews 04 and 05) depict the officers grappling with § 87(2)(b) while she yells for her mother. The officers can be heard instructing § 87(2)(b) to get inside the van and sit down. However, the quality of the video is very poor.

Force Clip 2.mp4

The NYC Department of Education Occurrence Report prepared by Richard Franzese (Board Review 20) noted that § 87(2)(b) was transported by officers to the 70th Precinct stationhouse for a non-school related incident. The report noted that § 87(2)(b) left school without permission and that the administration did not know what § 87(2)(b) did before being transported to the stationhouse. The report did not mention or describe force used by officers.

When a minor, who reasonably appears to be over the age of six and less than eighteen, who is observed outside of school on a day of instruction and it is ascertained that the minor is a truant, officers should take the minor into custody and deliver to principal or designees of school attended, if known. Patrol Guide Procedure 215-07, “Truants” (Board Review 21).

Force may be used when it is reasonable to place a person in custody. In determining whether the use of force is reasonable, members of the service should consider the nature and severity of the crime/circumstances, actions taken by the subject, immediacy of the perceived threat or harm, whether the subject is actively resisting custody, number of subjects in comparison to the number of MOS, the size and age of the subject in comparison to the MOS. Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01, “Force Guidelines,” (Board Review 22).

When a member of the service must gain compliance, control, or custody of an uncooperative subject, the member should utilize de-escalation techniques when appropriate and consistent with personal safety, which may reduce or eliminate the need to use force, and increase the likelihood of gaining the subject’s voluntary compliance. Officers should apply no more than the reasonable force necessary to gain control. Patrol Guide Procedure 221-02, “Use of Force,” (Board Review 23).

Allegation (C) Discourtesy: En route to the 70th Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Chanel Grenade spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated (Board Reviews 14 and 15) that after she was placed into handcuffs, the officers drove the other students in the police van to § 87(2)(b). After dropping the other students off at school, while driving § 87(2)(b) to the 70th Precinct stationhouse, PO Grenade said to PO Felix, “She’s lucky I didn’t slam her ass to the ground,” referring to § 87(2)(b).

PO Grenade (Board Review 17) said, “No,” when asked if she ever said to PO Felix, “She’s lucky I didn’t slam her ass to the ground,” referring to § 87(2)(b). When asked if she ever said anything to PO Felix referring to § 87(2)(b) threatening the use of additional force, or using profanity, PO Grenade said, “No.”

PO Felix (Board Review 18) confirmed that PO Grenade said while in the van, “She’s lucky I didn’t slam her ass to the ground,” referring to § 87(2)(b) en route to the 70th Precinct stationhouse. PO Felix did not remember § 87(2)(b) making any statements in the van, but stated that § 87(2)(b) was crying.

Officers are to interact with members of the public in a professional manner, Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09, “Public Contact – General,” (Board Review 24).

The NYPD has also held, as in Disciplinary Case no. 79627/04 (Board Review 32), that “when a police officer uses an otherwise impolite word during a stressful... encounter where that officer is attempting to maintain control of the situation, the police officer's verbal slip does not rise to the level of actionable misconduct."

Allegation (D) Abuse of Authority: Over the phone, Police Officer Chanel Grenade refused to provide her name to § 87(2)(b)

It is disputed whether or not PO Grenade refused to provide her name to § 87(2)(b) over the phone.

§ 87(2)(b) (Board Review 16) stated that, while she was looking for a parking spot near the 70th Precinct stationhouse, she received a call from PO Grenade who was calling from an anonymous number. § 87(2)(b) asked, "Who am I speaking with?" PO Grenade responded telling § 87(2)(b) that she had § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) told PO Grenade that she was looking for a parking spot and preferred to speak with her face to face. PO Grenade responded saying, "Well I see the apple does not fall far from the tree. When an officer talks, you and your daughter need to learn to listen." § 87(2)(b) told PO Grenade that she would be at the stationhouse shortly and disengaged the call. PO Grenade never provided her name or any identifying information to § 87(2)(b) over the phone.

PO Grenade (Board Review 17) stated that she started the conversation with § 87(2)(b) over the phone by stating, "This is Officer Grenade from the 70th Precinct.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (E) Offensive Language: At the 70th Precinct stationhouse, Detective Jesus Roldan made remarks to § 87(2)(b) based upon race.

When § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 16) arrived at the 70th Precinct stationhouse, she and PO Grenade got into an argument about § 87(2)(b)'s arrest. § 87(2)(b)'s niece, § 87(2)(b) was present at the stationhouse when § 87(2)(b) arrived. Approximately thirty minutes later, Det. Roldan approached § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) was angry, crying, and irate at the time. Det. Roldan brought § 87(2)(b) a bottle of water and said, "You need to calm down, and I'm going to have you speak to the sergeants in a while, but you need to remember that they think all Hispanics and blacks are ghetto, and I know you're classy, I heard you speak, so you need to calm down before you speak to them." § 87(2)(b) told Det. Roldan that she did not care about his perception and that she was upset. Det. Roldan insisted that § 87(2)(b) needed to calm down and said, "They think we're all like that, and you need to show them that you're classy. Just be the classy lady I know you are."

§ 87(2)(b) provided a statement over the phone on May 17, 2018 (Board Review 25). § 87(2)(b) confirmed that she heard an officer tell § 87(2)(b) to calm down and made comments based on her race, but only confirmed this after being questioned about such comments being made. § 87(2)(b) also did not remember who made the comments.

Det. Roldan was interviewed at the CCRB on July 31, 2018 (Board Review 26). Det. Roldan confirmed he provided § 87(2)(b) with a bottle of water and spoke with her briefly. Det. Roldan never told § 87(2)(b) she needed to calm down and never made any statements to her based on her race. Det. Roldan denied that he ever told § 87(2)(b) “You need to calm down, and I’m going to have you speak to the sergeants in a while, but you need to remember that they think all Hispanics and blacks are ghetto, and I know you’re classy, I heard you speak, so you need to calm down before you speak to them.” Det. Roldan denied that he ever said to § 87(2)(b) “They think we’re all like that, and you need to show them that you’re classy. Just be the classy lady I know you are.”

PO Moseley-Jones was interviewed at the CCRB on August 29, 2018 (Board Review 27). PO Moseley-Jones initially stated that she did not have any interaction with § 87(2)(b) and was not within ear shot of Det. Roldan and § 87(2)(b) during their interaction. After being presented with 70th Precinct stationhouse surveillance video (Board Reviews 06 through 08) depicting her interacting with § 87(2)(b) and Det. Roldan, PO Moseley-Jones did not have any recollection of what Det. Roldan and § 87(2)(b) were talking about. PO Moseley-Jones did not hear Det. Roldan tell § 87(2)(b) “You need to calm down, and I’m going to have you speak to the sergeants in a while, but you need to remember that they think all Hispanics and blacks are ghetto, and I know you’re classy, I heard you speak, so you need to calm down before you speak to them.” PO Moseley-Jones did not hear Det. Roldan tell § 87(2)(b) “They think we’re all like that, and you need to show them that you’re classy. Just be the classy lady I know you are.” PO Moseley-Jones did not hear Det. Roldan make any comments to § 87(2)(b) based upon her race.

The 70th Precinct stationhouse video footage (Board Reviews 05 through 07) does not have audio and therefore cannot be used to reach an affirmative finding regarding this allegation. However, the video did show PO Moseley-Jones present during portions of § 87(2)(b) and Det. Roldan’s interaction.

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: At the 70th Precinct stationhouse, Detective Jesus Roldan did not process § 87(2)(b) s complaint regarding officers.

While at the stationhouse, § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 16) told Det. Roldan that she needed to file a complaint against the officers who arrested § 87(2)(b). Det. Roldan told § 87(2)(b) that they were out of complaint forms and showed her an encased piece of cardboard with the CCRB phone number on it, instructing her to call the CCRB. § 87(2)(b) took a photo of the sign with the CCRB phone number.

§ 87(2)(b) (Board Review 25) confirmed that § 87(2)(b) stated that she wanted to file a complaint against officers. An officer told § 87(2)(b) she had to call 311 to file a complaint, but § 87(2)(b) did not remember who informed § 87(2)(b) of this.

Det. Roldan (Board Review 26) denied that § 87(2)(b) ever told him that she wanted to file a complaint against officers. Det. Roldan denied that he ever refused to take § 87(2)(b) s complaint against officers. Det. Roldan denied that he ever informed § 87(2)(b) that there were no complaint forms at the stationhouse. Initially, Det. Roldan denied that he provided § 87(2)(b) with the CCRB phone number. After being presented with video from the 70th Precinct stationhouse, Det. Roldan confirmed that he pointed to the CCRB phone number and told § 87(2)(b) that she could call the CCRB if she felt that officers did something she did not like. Det.

Roldan denied that he provided § 87(2)(b) with the CCRB information because § 87(2)(b) asked to file a complaint. Det. Roland stated that he provided § 87(2)(b) with the CCRB's information voluntarily and not per her request. Det. Roldan reiterated that § 87(2)(b) never asked to file a complaint at the stationhouse.

PO Moseley-Jones (Board Review 27) did not hear Det. Roldan refuse to process § 87(2)(b)'s complaint regarding officers.

Video from the 70th Precinct stationhouse (Board Reviews 05 through 07) shows Det. Roldan pointing at something on the wall in the waiting area of the stationhouse. Det. Roldan proceeds to write something on a piece of paper and then § 87(2)(b) takes a photo of the area of the wall that Det. Roldan had pointed at. As noted above, the video does not have audio.

Allegation (J) Abuse of Authority: At the 70th Precinct Stationhouse, Sergeant Sazedur Rahman instructed Police Officer Chanel Grenade to refuse to provide her shield number to § 87(2)(b)

Allegations I and J were pleaded against Sgt. Rahman because he was working as the tour three desk sergeant at the 70th Precinct on the date of this incident, and PO Grenade stated that the tour three desk sergeant instructed her not to provide her name or shield to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) (Board Review 16) stated that, while in the stationhouse, she pointed at PO Grenade and said to all of the officers in the stationhouse, “No one in this building knows this officer’s name? Her badge number? No one knows who is she is? So she is a stranger walking amongst you.” All the officers ignored § 87(2)(b)

PO Grenade (Board Review 17) felt pain after returning to the stationhouse and requested to go to the hospital. Approximately 20 minutes after returning to the stationhouse, PO Grenade was doing paperwork with PO Felix in the admin room regarding § 87(2)(b)'s arrest. At some point, PO Grenade walked from the administrative room to Sgt. Rahman at the desk because she needed him to sign something. § 87(2)(b) stated, “It’s her. I want her name and her badge number.” Sgt. Rahman told unidentified officers to tell § 87(2)(b) that it was all in the paperwork. Sgt. Rahman told PO Grenade that, because she was hurt, § 87(2)(b) would have to get her information from the paperwork.

Sgt. Rahman was interviewed at the CCRB on November 16, 2018 (Board Review 28). Sgt. Rahman did not initially remember this incident. Sgt. Rahman was presented with the § 87(2)(b)'s arrest report (Board Review 19), but did not remember anything about the arrest report other than that he signed it. Sgt. Rahman remembered that PO Grenade went to the hospital, but did not remember why. Sgt. Rahman did not remember § 87(2)(b) asking officers in the stationhouse for PO Grenade's name and shield number. Sgt. Rahman did not instruct PO Grenade not to provide her name and shield number to § 87(2)(b). Sgt. Rahman denied that there would have been any reason that PO Grenade would not have been able to provide § 87(2)(b) with her name or shield number. Sgt. Rahman denied that there would be any reason related to the fact that she was injured that PO Grenade would not have been permitted to provide her name and shield number to § 87(2)(b). Sgt. Rahman did not know if an officer would be permitted to withhold their name and shield number to a civilian if the civilian were going to be charged with assaulting an officer. Sgt. Rahman did not know if PO Grenade ever refused to provide her name and shield number to § 87(2)(b).

Det. Roldan (Board Review 26) did not hear § 87(2)(b) request PO Grenade's name or shield number.

PO Moseley-Jones (Board Review 27) did not know if § 87(2)(b) ever requested PO Grenade's name or shield number. PO Moseley-Jones did not hear PO Grenade refuse to provide her name or shield number to § 87(2)(b).

Officers must courteously and clearly state their rank, name, shield number, and command, or otherwise provide them, to anyone who requests them to do so, Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09, "Public Contact – General," (Board Review 25).
