In connection with the above-named case, the People voluntarily provide the following information regarding:

MOS NAME: JASON SHARP

MOS TAX: 935731

in satisfaction (to the extent applicable) of their constitutional, statutory, and ethical obligations. Further, the People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use and/or introduction into evidence. Pursuant to Civil Rights Law § 50-a(2) and People v. Gissendanner, 48 N.Y.2d 543, 548 (1979), any requests for underlying records should be made by motion to the Court with notice to the interested parties.

Disclosure #1:

On March 3, 2013, Police Officer Jason Sharp, shield number 16369, was arraigned on a criminal court complaint, Docket Number 2013NA004841, in Nassau County. P.O. Sharp was charged with Assault in the Third Degree (PL 120.00(2)), Endangering the Welfare of a Child (PL 260.10(1)), and Criminal Mischief in the Fourth Degree (PL 145.00). The charges were based on the following alleged conduct: On March 2, 2013, at about 4:30 p.m., P.O. Sharp's wife returned to their residence in Nassau County and allegedly observed one of their children with a red, swollen eye. The child, who was not quite four years old, allegedly told his mother, "Daddy punched me." P.O. Sharp's wife also observed a newly-created hole in one of the walls of the residence. Police were called and arrived at the residence and arrested P.O. Sharp, who appeared intoxicated.

On January 17, 2014, P.O. Sharp, having previously completed mandated outpatient substance/alcohol abuse treatment and having received counseling through the NYPD, pleaded guilty to Disorderly Conduct in full satisfaction of all charges, and was sentenced to a conditional discharge.

In connection with this incident, PO Sharp also pleaded guilty to three Departmental charges:

- (1) While off duty, engaged in a physical altercation with a person known to the Department;
 - (2) While off duty, acted in a manner injurious to the physical welfare of a child less than seventeen years old;
- and
- (3) While off duty, damaged property.

On February 26, 2015, the following penalty was imposed on PO Sharp: the forfeiture of thirty (30) pre-trial suspension days already served.
