DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that Joshua Moscoso, on or about August 1, 2018, failed to safeguard prisoner property, in that said officer did not voucher the prisoner's jewelry as arrest evidence. Joshua Moscoso left a clear plastic bag containing the prisoner's earrings on a metal table unattended, within the 33rd Precinct holding cell area. The complainant's earrings were never recovered. Joshua Moscoso was found in violation of PG 203-05 General Regulations (4) when he did not deliver the prisoner's property to the desk officer.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated three allegations that Joshua Moscoso, while assigned to the 33rd Precinct, on or about November 20, 2018, (1) failed to safeguard his Department cell phone, (2) misplaced Department cell phone, and (3) failed to notify Internal Affairs Bureau in a timely manner.
3. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated allegation(s) that Joshua Moscoso, on or about November 22, 2019, (1) failed to properly search a Department vehicle and (2) property-- controlled substance -- was found in the Department vehicle
4. As of October 13, 2020, the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has a pending complaint reported on July 13, 2020 against Joshua Moscoso alleging "Force—Physical force" arising from an incident on December 25, 2019.
