Case Summary

On January 30, 2018, § 87(2)(b) the sole victim, filed this complaint with the CCRB via phone. During the call, he provided his phone number, mailing address and email address. He mentioned being in possession of cellphone video footage that may have captured the incident.

On February 23, 2018, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) confirmed cellphone number and he was scheduled for an in-person interview at the CCRB on February 27, 2018. On February 23, 2018, an email with appointment information was sent to § 87(2)(b) confirmed email address. Additionally, on February 26, 2018, a text message reminder of the appointment was sent to him. On February 27, 2018, § 87(2)(b) failed to appear to his appointment and did not contact the CCRB in advance to cancel or reschedule.

On February 28, 2018, a missed appointment letter and email were sent to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) The letter was not returned by the U.S. Postal service and the email was not undeliverable.

On February 28, 2018, video footage of the incident was obtained from § 87(2)(b) via text. The video footage was reviewed and it did not display any obvious misconduct.

On February 28, 2018, contact with § 87(2)(b) was reestablished via phone. § 87(2)(b) stated that he missed his interview because of work and was scheduled for a second appointment on March 15, 2018. On March 13, 2018, a text message reminder of the appointment was sent to § 87(2)(b). On March 15, 2018, § 87(2)(b) missed his second appointment and did not contact the CCRB in advance to cancel or reschedule it.

On March 19, 2018, Searches of the Department of Correction for New York City and New York State confirmed that § 87(2)(b) is not currently incarcerated.

As § 87(2)(b) missed two scheduled CCRB appointments without contacting the CCRB to cancel or reschedule, § 87(2)(g)
