Synopsis

On December 21, 2006, § 87(2)(b) a taxi driver, was driving along Bedford Avenue in Brooklyn. He was driving behind a yellow taxi. The taxi was driving at approximately 20 mph. After the cab passed a church, the car suddenly stopped. The driver of the taxi indicated that § 87(2)(b) should drive around him. When § 87(2)(b) attempted to drive around the car, the lights on the vehicle came on and two officers stepped out of the taxi. The officers approached § 87(2)(b)'s car. PO Vaughan Ettienne approached the driver's side and his partner, a Hispanic officer, approached the passenger side. The Hispanic officer opened his right car door and PO Ettienne told § 87(2)(b) to roll down his window. § 87(2)(b) asked what he had done and PO Ettienne put his hand in § 87(2)(b)'s face and told him to present his license. § 87(2)(b) then told the officer that it was illegal for him to point his finger in his face. § 87(2)(b) gave the officer his license and the officers returned to the yellow taxi with it. After some minutes PO Ettienne returned with two summonses. He told § 87(2)(b) to tell the judge in court that he put his "fucking finger" in his face.

PO Ettienne was identified from the summons – his pedigree information fits the description provided by the complainant. § 87(2)(b) described PO Ettienne as a muscular black male, about 5'7". PO Ettienne's CTS profile identifies him as a § 87(2)(b) old black male. Furthermore, § 87(2)(b) stated that only two officers approached his car a Hispanic male and a black male.

On February 14, 2007, § 87(2)(b) stated to the undersigned investigator that he no longer wanted to pursue this case. § 87(2)(b) The officer did not show up so the summons was dismissed. § 87(2)(b) confirmed that neither members of the NYPD or CCRB influenced him. Assistant Supervisor Alexander DeSantis reviewed the tape with the recorded statement. As of February 14, 2007, a complaint withdrawn letter was sent to § 87(2)(b) The letter will be entered in the case file upon return. § 87(2)(g)
