With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

The People are aware that during the time he/she has been employed by the New York City Police Department, that Mel Perashi has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in several state lawsuits.

1. McCaskill v. City of New York, et al., 111102/2016, filed in New York Supreme Court, for which the disposition is unknown.

A review of the officer's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On March 2, 2012, Mel Perashi had a substantiated departmental investigation for inaccurate information in a stop and frisk report for which he received a "B" command discipline and forfeited two vacation days.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [ADA Ext.] during office hours.

Sincerely,
