Re: People v. [REDACTED] Ind. No. [REDACTED]

Dear Counsel:

As you know, I am the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case of the People v. [REDACTED]. This disclosure concerns Retired Detective Jose Burgos, whom the People intend to call as a witness in this case.

On or about January 4, 1999, the Department Advocate of the NYPD charged Detective Burgos with seven Departmental Specification and Charges, including: four charges of meal violations, one charge of failing to make activity log entries, and two charges of conduct prejudicial to the good order of the Department. The Department penalized Detective Burgos with one year of dismissal probation and the forfeiture of 25 vacation days. An NYPD document entitled "Disposition of Disciplinary Proceedings," which lists information about these specifications and charges is enclosed. The document has been redacted to remove information concerning officers other than Detective Burgos.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude or limit reference to this information in any further proceedings in this prosecution.

Sincerely,

Jakub D. Brodowski
Assistant District Attorney
