On August 8, 2018, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint in-person at the CCRB.

On August 7, 2018, at approximately 9:00 p.m., § 87(2)(b) approached Lieutenant Andrew Hatki, who was sitting at the front desk in the 44th Precinct Stationhouse, to follow up on a missing person's report she filed for her granddaughter on August 3, 2018. Lt. Hatki allegedly told § 87(2)(b) that her granddaughter was a "bother" and that "every week, every month, it was a lot of shit." Lt. Hatki allegedly told § 87(2)(b) he did not have to hear "that shit", he "didn't want to see lotta shit" and he "didn't want that shit", referring to her report (Allegation A:

Discourtesy; § 87(2)(g)

Video footage of the 44th Precinct's Stationhouse front desk area was received from command 623. However, the video is not equipped with audio recording and does not show any FADO allegations [BR 01].

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Discourtesy: Lieutenant Andrew Hatki spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) interacted with Lt. Hatki regarding the missing person's report she filed for her granddaughter. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on August 8, 2018 [BR 02]. § 87(2)(b) stated that when she approached Lt. Hatki at the front desk, he told her that her granddaughter was a "bother" to the precinct and said, "every week, every month, it was a lot of shit." § 87(2)(b) told Lt. Hatki that her granddaughter was a minor with bipolar disorder. Lt. Hatki responded that he did not have to hear "that shit", that he "didn't want to see lotta shit", and that he "didn't want that shit." § 87(2)(b) was alone at the time when Lt. Hatki made these statements to her.

Lt. Hatki was interviewed at the CCRB on November 28, 2018 [BR 03]. Lt. Hatki initially stated that he did not have any independent recollection of this incident. Lt. Hatki was shown the video footage of § 87(2)(b) in the stationhouse, which refreshed his memory. Lt. Hatki stated that at approximately 9:00 p.m., he walked pass the front desk when he overheard § 87(2)(b) speaking to an officer about her missing person's report. Lt. Hatki explained to § 87(2)(b) how missing person's cases worked, then gave her his name and the number of the detective squad that would have her case. Lt. Hatki stated that § 87(2)(b) was frustrated with not getting the results from the case she wanted, but that the conversation overall was pleasant. Lt. Hatki spoke to her in English and believed that she understood what he was saying. Lt. Hatki denied using profanity towards § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) interacted with another officer at the stationhouse, who spoke with her in Spanish. The investigation determined through video footage received from the 44th Precinct Stationhouse that PO Maldonado matched § 87(2)(b)'s description of the officer who spoke with her. PO Maldonado was interviewed at the CCRB on October 23, 2018 [BR 04]. PO Maldonado did not remember if he was requested to translate for § 87(2)(b) and did not see § 87(2)(b) have any interaction with another officer. PO Maldonado did not hear any officer use the word "shit" towards § 87(2)(b) or direct any profanity towards her.

Lt. Hatki was identified using § 87(2)(b)'s description while PO Maldonado was identified using video footage from the 44th Precinct Stationhouse on August 7, 2018 (embedded below). § 87(2)(g)
