Case Summary

On March 11, 2020, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with IAB over the phone. This case was received at the CCRB on March 26, 2020.

The IAB Log did not have contact information for § 87(2)(b) but his phone number and address were obtained from his arrest report related to this incident. Between March 27, 2020, and April 21, 2020, seven calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) and seven voice messages were left on the number on his arrest report.

Searches of LexisNexis and CLEAR revealed six possible phone numbers and one email for § 87(2)(b). On April 28, 2020, an email was sent to the email for § 87(2)(b) from public records, but it was returned as undeliverable. On April 30, 2020, calls were placed to all of the numbers found via public records for § 87(2)(b). One voice message was left on one number and all of the other numbers were either out of service or not his.

On May 5, 2020, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) and his partner, § 87(2)(b) answered and stated he was not there and did not have a working phone, but she agreed to tell him to call. Later on May 5, 2020, § 87(2)(b) called and left a voice message. On May 7, 2020, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) and he confirmed his contact information. § 87(2)(b) requested to speak with his civil attorney about providing a statement to the CCRB. § 87(2)(b) agreed to consult his attorney by May 11, 2020. On May 7, 2020, an email was sent to § 87(2)(b) with an unsealing order and the CCRB website so he could provide the information to his attorney. Between May 14, 2020, and May 22, 2020, three calls were placed and three voice messages were left for § 87(2)(b) informing him that the case might be closed without a full investigation if he did not provide a statement. On May 14, 2020, and May 22, 2020, two final please call emails were sent to § 87(2)(b).

On May 22, 2020, § 87(2)(b) called from a new phone number and stated that he did not want to provide a statement at this time and that his civil attorney wanted to speak with the CCRB. On May 22, 2020, and May 26, 2020, two calls were placed and two messages were left for § 87(2)(b) civil attorney asking him to call back. On May 29, 2020, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) and a voice message was left informing him that his civil attorney was not answering. A search of the internet for § 87(2)(b) civil attorney revealed that he was a private attorney.
