With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

The People are aware that during the time Officer Edward Delacruz has been employed by the New York City Police Department, that he has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in several state lawsuits.

1. In 2014, a civil case with Officer Delacruz settled for $22,500, ending litigation in Supreme Court, Bronx County. Its caption is Dos Santos v. City of New York, et al., 306959/2013.

In the cases that settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal with prejudice was filed with the respective court, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated.

A review of the officer's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On January 8, 2019 Officer Delacruz had a substantiated departmental investigation for failure to properly safeguard a prisoner's property and failure to prepare a property clerk invoice, for which no disciplinary action was taken.
