

CCRB INVESTIGATIVE RECOMMENDATION

Investigator: Maura Roche	Team: Squad #10	CCRB Case #: 201909798	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Force	<input type="checkbox"/> Discourt.	<input type="checkbox"/> U.S.
			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Abuse	<input type="checkbox"/> O.L.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Injury
Incident Date(s) Friday, 11/08/2019 8:20 PM	Location of Incident: § 87(2)(b)	Precinct: 14	18 Mo. SOL 5/8/2021	EO SOL 12/23/2021
Date/Time CV Reported Sat, 11/09/2019 12:56 PM	CV Reported At: CCRB	How CV Reported: E-mail	Date/Time Received at CCRB Sat, 11/09/2019 12:56 PM

Complainant/Victim	Type	Home Address
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)

Witness(es)	Home Address
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)

Subject Officer(s)	Shield	TaxID	Command
1. POM Thomas Chille	07681	965983	MTS PCT
2. POM Michael Miller	29217	963166	MTS PCT

Witness Officer(s)	Shield No	Tax No	Cmd Name
1. POM Joel Polanco	30441	957044	MTS PCT

Officer(s)	Allegation	Investigator Recommendation
A.POM Thomas Chille	Force: Police Officer Thomas Chille used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
B.POM Michael Miller	Force: Police Officer Michael Miller used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
C.POM Thomas Chille	Abuse: Police Officer Thomas Chille forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.	§ 87(2)(b)
D.POM Michael Miller	Abuse: Police Officer Michael Miller forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.	§ 87(2)(b)
E.POM Michael Miller	Abuse: Police Officer Michael Miller threatened to arrest § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
F.POM Michael Miller	Abuse: Police Officer Michael Miller threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.	§ 87(2)(b)
G.POM Michael Miller	Force: Police Officer Michael Miller used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
§ 87(4-b) § 87(2)(g)	§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)

Case Summary

On November 9, 2019, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB by phone.

On November 8, 2019, at approximately 8:20 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was at § 87(2)(b) a restaurant located at § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan. One of the managers, § 87(2)(b) asked § 87(2)(b) to leave the premises because she had received complaints that § 87(2)(b) had been harassing customers for free drinks. § 87(2)(b) refused to leave, and § 87(2)(b) asked another manager, § 87(2)(b) to call 911. A few minutes later, PO Thomas Chille and PO Michael Miller, both of the 14th Precinct (PO Miller has since been transferred to Fleet Service), arrived at the location and, having confirmed with security and § 87(2)(b) that § 87(2)(b) was no longer permitted on the premises, asked § 87(2)(b) to leave. When § 87(2)(b) refused to leave, PO Chille and PO Miller took § 87(2)(b) by the arms, handcuffed her, and allegedly dragged her out to the sidewalk (Allegations A and B: Force – Physical Force, § 87(2)(g)).

Once PO Chille and PO Miller were on the sidewalk with § 87(2)(b) they determined that she needed to be evaluated at the hospital for intoxication and erratic behavior (Allegations C and D: Abuse of Authority – Forcible Removal to Hospital, § 87(2)(g)). While waiting for the ambulance to arrive, PO Miller told § 87(2)(b) that if she went back inside the restaurant she would probably get “locked up,” (Allegation E: Abuse of Authority – Threat of Arrest, § 87(2)(g)) and that he would “put her on the ground” (Allegation F: Abuse of Authority – Threat of Force (Verbal or Physical), § 87(2)(g)). PO Miller pushed § 87(2)(b) back away from him approximately one foot (Allegation G: Force – Physical Force, § 87(2)(g)). The ambulance arrived approximately 20 minutes later, and after speaking with PO Chille and PO Miller, the EMTs took § 87(2)(b) to § 87(2)(b) for evaluation.

PO Miller did not prepare a memo book (BR 01) as required (Allegation H: Other Possible Misconduct – Failure to Prepare a Memo Book Entry).

Security footage from § 87(2)(b) (BR 02, BR 03, BR 04, and BR 05), and body-worn camera footage from PO Chille (BR 06 and BR 07), PO Miller (BR 08 and BR 09), and PO Joel Polanco (BR 10 and BR 11), also of the 14th Precinct, captured this incident, the relevant portions of which are discussed below. No arrests or summonses resulted from this incident.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Force: Police Officer Thomas Chille used physical force against § 87(2)(b).

Allegation (B) Force: Police Officer Michael Miller used physical force against § 87(2)(b).

It was undisputed that on November 8, 2019, at approximately 8:20 p.m., managers at § 87(2)(b) located at § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan, asked § 87(2)(b) to leave, and she refused. PO Chille and PO Miller responded, handcuffed § 87(2)(b) and led her out of the restaurant. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) consistently stated (BR 12 and BR 13) that as she was leaving the restaurant, one of the owners told her that she was no longer welcome there and not to come back. While § 87(2)(b) was speaking with this owner, PO Chille and PO Miller arrived, and PO Miller told § 87(2)(b) that she needed to leave. § 87(2)(b) told PO Miller that she had not done anything wrong, and PO Miller told § 87(2)(b) to step outside. § 87(2)(b) said, “okay,” but, before she could move, PO Miller handcuffed her tightly and pulled her by her coat forward out of the restaurant.

§ 87(2)(b) (BR 14) stated that prior to this incident, § 87(2)(b) had frequently come to the restaurant and harassed customers by asking them to buy her drinks, making inappropriate and irrational comments, and loudly cursing. On November 8, 2019, § 87(2)(b) arrived at the restaurant at approximately 3 p.m. and asked people to purchase drinks for her, frequently moved between the bar and large tables that were reserved for other parties, and loudly cursed and yelled at customers. At approximately 8 p.m., § 87(2)(b) got up to leave, and a security guard told § 87(2)(b) that she was not welcome to come back because of myriad complaints customers had made about her behavior. § 87(2)(b) started to yell and curse at the security guard, who, with another manager, § 87(2)(b) tried to calm § 87(2)(b) down. § 87(2)(b) continued to yell and threatened to “beat” and “kill” § 87(2)(b). A bartender told § 87(2)(b) that he was going to call the police, and § 87(2)(b) said, “Go ahead, call the fucking cops.”

Less than ten minutes later, PO Chille and PO Miller arrived and asked § 87(2)(b) to leave. § 87(2)(b) refused and started yelling and cursing at the officers. PO Chille and PO Miller tried to verbally convince § 87(2)(b) to leave, but, when she refused, they took out handcuffs to restrain her. § 87(2)(b) pulled her arms away from the officers, but PO Chille and PO Miller eventually handcuffed her. Once in the handcuffs, § 87(2)(b) became compliant and walked willingly with PO Chille and PO Miller out of the restaurant.

§ 87(2)(b) told the 911 operator (BR 15 and BR 16) that there was a woman § 87(2)(b) at the restaurant who had been harassing customers for the past few weeks who was no longer permitted to be on the premises. When he had asked § 87(2)(b) to leave, she told § 87(2)(b) to “fuck” himself and “threatened” him. He added that § 87(2)(b) did not have any weapons but that she was “arguing.”

PO Chille (BR 17) and PO Miller (BR 18) consistently stated that when they arrived at the restaurant, they met a restaurant manager on the sidewalk who explained that § 87(2)(b) was inside acting disorderly and that he wanted her removed. The manager pointed § 87(2)(b) out to PO Chille and PO Miller, who approached her and asked her to leave at least three to five times. When § 87(2)(b) refused to comply with their repeated requests, PO Chille and PO Miller decided to handcuff § 87(2)(b) who was yelling loudly, for their safety and the safety of the customers because they were afraid that § 87(2)(b)'s behavior would escalate into something physical. PO Chille and PO Miller each took one of § 87(2)(b)'s hands and pulled them behind her back. § 87(2)(b) tensed her arms but did not otherwise resist, and PO Chille and PO Miller easily handcuffed her. Once handcuffed, PO Chille and PO Miller held § 87(2)(b) by her biceps and escorted her out of the restaurant. § 87(2)(b) walked willingly, and neither PO Chille nor PO Miller pushed or dragged § 87(2)(b) as they were walking.

Security footage of the incident shows § 87(2)(b) interacting with PO Chille and PO Miller inside the restaurant and walking out of the restaurant (BR 03 and BR 05). PO Chille's (BR 06 and BR 07) and PO Miller's (BR 08 and BR 09) body-worn cameras also capture this portion of the incident. In the security footage (BR 03 and BR 05), beginning at 2:38 minutes, PO Chille and PO Miller enter the restaurant and approach § 87(2)(b) who is standing at the bar. § 87(2)(b) PO Chille, and PO Miller walk toward the front entrance, and PO Miller points toward the door while speaking with § 87(2)(b) who stands still by the host stand. At 3:07 minutes, PO Miller takes § 87(2)(b) by her right and left wrists. § 87(2)(b) takes a step back away from PO Miller and pulls her arms away from him. PO Miller keeps hold of § 87(2)(b)'s right wrist as she continues to back away from him. PO Chille takes § 87(2)(b)'s left forearm, and § 87(2)(b) pulls her arms away from PO Miller and PO Chille while PO Miller tries to handcuff her. At 3:49 minutes, PO Miller handcuffs § 87(2)(b) and PO Chille escorts § 87(2)(b) out of the restaurant to the sidewalk by walking behind her and holding her right bicep.

In PO Miller's body-worn camera footage (BR 08 and BR 09), PO Miller approaches § 87(2)(b) and, at 1:08 minutes, tells § 87(2)(b) that he needs to talk with her outside. § 87(2)(b) tells PO Miller “get the fuck out of my face,” and refuses to leave the restaurant. At 1:25 minutes, PO Miller's body-worn camera falls to the ground and only captures muffled audio until 2:06 minutes, at which point § 87(2)(b) is already handcuffed and walking out of the restaurant. PO Chille's body-worn camera footage (BR 06 and BR 07) is consistent with that of PO Miller. The footage does not capture PO Chille or PO Miller handcuffing § 87(2)(b) because of the camera's close proximity to § 87(2)(b)'s body.

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

According to NYS Penal Law 140.05 (BR 19), a person is guilty of trespass when he knowingly enters or remains unlawfully in or upon premises.

Patrol Guide procedure 221-01 (BR 20) states that force may be used when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of the service or a third person, or otherwise protect life, or when it is reasonable to place a person in custody. In determining whether the use of force is reasonable, members of the service should consider the following: 1) The nature and severity of the crime/circumstances. 2) Actions taken by the subject. 3) Duration of the action. 4) Immediacy of the perceived threat or harm to the subject, members of the service, and/or bystanders. 5) Whether the subject is actively resisting custody. 6) Whether the subject is attempting to evade arrest by flight. 7) Number of subjects in comparison to the number of MOS. 8) Size, age, and condition of the subject in comparison to the MOS. 9) Subject's violent history, if known. 10) Presence of hostile crowd or agitators. 11) Subject apparently under the influence of a stimulant/narcotic which would affect pain tolerance or increase the likelihood of violence.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Thomas Chille forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.

Allegation (D) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Michael Miller forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.

Allegation (E) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Michael Miller threatened to arrest § 87(2)(b).

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Michael Miller threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

Allegation (G) Force: Police Officer Michael Miller used physical force against § 87(2)(b).

It was undisputed that PO Chille and PO Miller requested that EMS respond to the restaurant to evaluate § 87(2)(b) and that the EMS brought her to § 87(2)(b) for an evaluation. It was also undisputed that PO Miller told § 87(2)(b) that she could be arrested if she went back into the restaurant, that he would put her on the floor, and that PO Miller pushed § 87(2)(b) back away from him.

§ 87(2)(b) consistently stated (BR 12 and BR 13) that while she was at the restaurant, she only had one drink and that she was not intoxicated. Once they were outside, PO Miller and PO Chille told § 87(2)(b) that they had contacted EMS. While they waited, PO Chille held on to § 87(2)(b)'s left arm, and § 87(2)(b) complained that her handcuffs were tight, and that PO Miller did not like that she was wearing a fur coat. PO Miller refused to remove the handcuffs, which were never adjusted or tightened after they were initially put on, and he told § 87(2)(b) that he would "put her on the ground." § 87(2)(b) responded, "go ahead and do it," and, "I dare you." PO Miller did not, however, put § 87(2)(b) onto the ground.

When EMS finally arrived, PO Miller and PO Chille told the EMTs that § 87(2)(b) was intoxicated, and they brought her to § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) (BR 14) stated that she saw § 87(2)(b) consume one drink while she was inside the restaurant, but that § 87(2)(b) was asking numerous people to purchase drinks for her. PO Miller and PO Chille waited with § 87(2)(b) outside of the restaurant for EMS, during which time some customers entered the restaurant and told § 87(2)(b) that § 87(2)(b) had been telling PO Miller and PO Chille that she was sick and wanted to go to the hospital. The customers were concerned that § 87(2)(b) had taken ill after eating at the restaurant, but § 87(2)(b) assured them that § 87(2)(b) had not eaten at the restaurant. EMS eventually arrived and took § 87(2)(b) to the hospital without further incident. § 87(2)(b) did not hear any of the conversation between PO Miller, PO Chille, and § 87(2)(b) while they were outside of the restaurant, nor did she observe what occurred between them.

According to § 87(2)(b)'s Pre-Hospital Care report (BR 21), when EMTs arrived at the location, § 87(2)(b) was in handcuffs and ambulatory, with an odor of alcohol on her breath. PO Miller and PO Chille told EMTs that § 87(2)(b) had been acting erratically inside of the restaurant and was yelling at them and at customers. § 87(2)(b) had been asked to leave the restaurant, but she had refused and threatened staff. § 87(2)(b) disclosed that she had had one alcoholic drink.

§ 87(2)(b)'s medical records from § 87(2)(b) (BR 22) note that § 87(2)(b) arrived at the emergency room at approximately 9:09 p.m. with EMS with an NYPD escort for a psychiatric evaluation because she had been found intoxicated and acting disruptive in a restaurant. § 87(2)(b) denied that she was intoxicated and was uncooperative with triage. Upon evaluation, § 87(2)(b) "presented with clear signs/symptoms of alcohol intoxication that resolved with metabolism." At approximately 10:20 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was administered a breathalyzer test, the result of which was .065. § 87(2)(b) was diagnosed with alcohol intoxication and was released at 11:19 p.m.

PO Miller (BR 18) stated that he and PO Chille spoke with the manager when they arrived and told her that § 87(2)(b) had been drinking and was possibly intoxicated. When PO Miller approached § 87(2)(b) and asked her to leave, he could smell alcohol on her breath. § 87(2)(b) was also wearing dark sunglasses inside, which, combined with the odor of alcohol, the loud tone of § 87(2)(b)'s voice, and her refusal to leave the restaurant made PO Miller suspect that § 87(2)(b) was intoxicated. As soon as they were outside with § 87(2)(b) PO Miller called for EMS to respond to the location because he suspected that she was intoxicated, and he wanted her to be evaluated by medical professionals. PO Miller was concerned for § 87(2)(b)'s safety and for the safety of the people in the restaurant because § 87(2)(b) had refused to leave and did not seem to understand that she was not permitted to be inside of the restaurant because of her level of intoxication.

While they waited for EMS to arrive, § 87(2)(b) was acting "erratically" by alternately walking in circles, refusing to stand still, yelling loudly, and pulling away from PO Chille, who was trying to keep § 87(2)(b) in one place by holding onto her arm by the bicep, to suddenly going quiet and standing very still. § 87(2)(b) called PO Miller many derogatory names and made statements like, "faggot," "fuck you guys," and "I'm going to have you fired," but did not make any complaints about her handcuffs being too tight. PO Miller told § 87(2)(b) that if she continued to act erratically, he might "put her on the floor." PO Miller explained that he did not mean this as a threat but rather an explanation that he would put her into a seated position on the ground for her own safety until the ambulance arrived. PO Miller added that § 87(2)(b)'s behavior while they were outside the restaurant and waiting for the ambulance strengthened his suspicions that she was heavily intoxicated.

When the ambulance arrived, § 87(2)(b) initially refused to get in, but, after speaking with the EMTs, she agreed and was ultimately taken to § 87(2)(b).

PO Chille's statement (BR 17) was generally consistent with that of PO Miller with the following exceptions noted. PO Chille could not recall if he smelled alcohol on § 87(2)(b)'s breath but believed she was intoxicated because of her general demeanor. PO Chille did not recall if PO Miller ever told § 87(2)(b) that he would put her on the ground.

Body-worn camera footage from PO Miller (BR 08 and BR 09), PO Chille (BR 06 and BR 07), and PO Polanco (BR 10 and BR 11) captured this portion of the incident.

In PO Chille's body-worn camera footage, beginning at 2:35 minutes, PO Miller tells § 87(2)(b) "Listen. It smells like you had a lot to drink tonight, so you can go to the hospital instead of being arrested." § 87(2)(b) responds, "Yea? For what?" PO Miller says, "You're drunk." § 87(2)(b) answers, "I'm not drunk! Don't ever you...first of all, you're not a fucking woman to be fucking locking me up. That's what you're not." PO Chille tells § 87(2)(b) that she is not going to be locked up. § 87(2)(b) continues to yell that PO Miller is "not a girl," tells PO Chille and PO Miller, who are holding her by the biceps to let go of her, says that she is going to sue the officers, and continues to use profanity and yell. At 4:57 minutes, § 87(2)(b) is pacing on the sidewalk while PO Chille holds her left arm, starts giggling in a high-pitched tone, and then yells for PO Chille not to step on her shoe. PO Chille tells § 87(2)(b) to stop moving around. At 5:36 minutes, § 87(2)(b) yells that she only had two drinks and asks what she did to get kicked out. PO Miller responds, "The next time you go in there, you're probably gonna get locked up."

In PO Miller's body-worn camera footage, beginning at approximately 12:00 minutes, PO Chille is holding § 87(2)(b)'s left arm by the bicep while they stand on the sidewalk waiting for the ambulance. § 87(2)(b) is speaking with PO Miller, who is to her right. § 87(2)(b) walks from the edge of the sidewalk by the street to the center of the sidewalk where pedestrians are passing by and walks in circles. At 13:18 minutes, PO Miller asks § 87(2)(b) "Can you just stand still for a minute?" § 87(2)(b) responds, "How can I stand still if my coat is not on properly?" At 13:38 minutes, PO Polanco arrives at the location. When PO Miller tells PO Polanco that § 87(2)(b) is intoxicated, § 87(2)(b) interjects that she is not intoxicated but that the restaurant owner's wife is jealous of her. § 87(2)(b) questions why she is handcuffed and why she is under arrest, and PO Miller tells her that she is not under arrest but that she is intoxicated. When § 87(2)(b) continues to yell that the officers do not like her because of her fur coat, at 14:34 minutes, PO Miller says, "If you wanna keep acting up, we're gonna put you on the ground." § 87(2)(b) responds, "Put me on the ground? I dare you. I dare you. I dare you to put me on the ground."

At 15:49 minutes, § 87(2)(b) repeatedly says to PO Miller, who is standing in front of her but not touching her, "Stop touching me." PO Chille, who is holding § 87(2)(b)'s right bicep, is the only officer making contact with § 87(2)(b). By 16:32 minutes, PO Chille and PO Polanco are standing with § 87(2)(b) on the sidewalk opposite the street. At 16:50 minutes, PO Polanco explains to § 87(2)(b) that officers were called to the location. When § 87(2)(b) asks what crime she committed, PO Miller tells her, "Listen, I told you multiple times..." § 87(2)(b) turns toward PO Miller and loudly yells, "Stop talking to me! Stop talking to me!" As she says this, § 87(2)(b) walks closer to PO Miller. At 17:03 minutes, PO Miller extends his right arm and pushes § 87(2)(b) back approximately one to two feet by the upper right shoulder. § 87(2)(b) yells, "Don't push me! Don't fucking push me!" A passerby on the street stops and tells § 87(2)(b) to stop. PO Miller tells the passerby that they are okay, and she moves on.

Body-worn camera footage from PO Polanco was consistent with that of PO Miller and PO Chille.

Security footage (BR 02 and BR 05) captures § 87(2)(b) standing outside with PO Chille and PO Miller while they wait for the ambulance, but it has no audio and does not capture PO Miller pushing § 87(2)(b).

It was undisputed that § 87(2)(b) had been drinking alcohol. § 87(2)(g) § 87(2)(b) stated that she had one drink § 87(2)(b) was captured on body-worn camera saying she had two drinks). § 87(2)(b) also stated, as noted above, that she had observed § 87(2)(b) consume one alcoholic drink and that she had been harassing customers, had refused to leave the restaurant, and threatened to harm § 87(2)(b) and other restaurant staff. When PO Chille and PO Miller arrived, PO Miller smelled alcohol on her breath, and they both considered her to be intoxicated because of her refusal to leave, her quick mood swings, and her generally uncooperative demeanor. When § 87(2)(b) continued to question why she was handcuffed, PO Miller told her that if she went back into the restaurant, from which she had just been ejected, she would “probably get locked up.”

While waiting for EMS to respond to the location, § 87(2)(b) was walking in circles and into pedestrian traffic on the sidewalk and yelling at PO Miller and PO Chille. When § 87(2)(b) refused to stand still, PO Miller told her, “If you wanna keep acting up, we’re gonna put you on the ground.” PO Miller did not ever put § 87(2)(b) on the ground. As they continued to wait, while explaining to § 87(2)(b) that she was not under arrest, § 87(2)(b) yelled loudly at PO Miller telling him not to talk to her. As she did this, she took steps closer to him, at which time PO Miller pushed her by the shoulder back away from him.

§ 87(2)(b)'s medical records confirm that she was diagnosed with alcohol intoxication.

Patrol Guide procedure 221-13 (BR 23) defines an emotionally disturbed person as someone who appears to be mentally ill or temporarily deranged and is conducting himself in a manner which a police officer reasonably believes is likely to result in serious injury to himself or others. It adds that the safety of all persons involved is paramount in cases involving emotionally disturbed persons. If such person is dangerous to himself or others, force may be used when it is reasonable to prevent serious physical injury or death. Members of the service will only use the reasonable force necessary to gain control or custody of a subject.

Patrol Guide procedure 221-01 (BR 20) states that force may be used when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of the service or a third person, or otherwise protect life, or when it is reasonable to place a person in custody. In determining whether the use of force is reasonable, members of the service should consider the following: 1) The nature and severity of the crime/circumstances. 2) Actions taken by the subject. 3) Duration of the action. 4) Immediacy of the perceived threat or harm to the subject, members of the service, and/or bystanders. 5) Whether the subject is actively resisting custody. 6) Whether the subject is attempting to evade arrest by flight. 7) Number of subjects in comparison to the number of MOS. 8) Size, age, and condition of the subject in comparison to the MOS. 9) Subject's violent history, if known. 10) Presence of hostile crowd or agitators. 11) Subject apparently under the influence of a stimulant/narcotic which would affect pain tolerance or increase the likelihood of violence.

According to NYS Penal Law 140.05 (BR 19), a person is guilty of trespass when he knowingly enters or remains unlawfully in or upon premises.

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(4-b) § 87(2)(g)

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- § 87(2)(b) has been party to one CCRB complaint and has been named a victim in two allegations (BR 25).
 - § 87(2)(b)
- PO Chille has been a member-of-service for three year, and this is the first CCRB complaint to which he has been a subject.
- PO Miller has been a member-of-service for four years, and this is the first CCRB complaint to which he has been a subject.

Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories

- This complaint was not suitable for mediation.
- As of March 23, 2020, the New York City Office of the Comptroller has no record of a Notice of Claim being filed in regards this to complaint (BR 26).
- [§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)]

Squad No.: 10

Investigator:	Maura R. Roche	S.I. Maura R. Roche	10/26/2021
	Signature	Print Title & Name	Date

Squad Leader:	Eric Rigie	IM Eric Rigie	10/27/2021
	Signature	Print Title & Name	Date

Reviewer:	_____	_____	_____
	Signature	Print Title & Name	Date

