Case Summary

On February 15, 2018, the CCRB received the following MOS-reported complaint from IAB, filed on behalf of incarcerated alleged victim § 87(2)(b). There is no BWC footage of the incident.

In March 2018, § 87(2)(b)'s attorney determined that he would not allow § 87(2)(b) to provide a statement regarding the incident due to pending litigation on the matter. But various circumstances delayed truncation of the case until July 2018, by which time § 87(2)(b) had already been released from custody.

After extensive efforts to locate § 87(2)(b) the investigation eventually reached him by phone on August 13, 2018, and scheduled him to appear for an interview on August 23, 2018. An appointment reminder was sent by SMS. However, § 87(2)(b) failed to appear for the interview and never attempted to contact the CCRB thereafter. He did not respond to a missed appointment letter mailed on August 23, 2018 (an emailed copy was returned as undeliverable). And through September 2018, his cell phone appeared to be disconnected from service on multiple calls to the number.

On September 23, 2018, the investigation learned that § 87(2)(b) had been incarcerated again after being arrested on § 87(2)(b) (on charges unrelated to the CCRB complaint). To see if he still wanted to provide a statement, the investigation then arranged through the New York City Department of Correction (DOC) to video-conference with § 87(2)(b) on October 9, 2018.

But on October 9, just before the scheduled call, DOC staff advised that § 87(2)(b) had refused to participate as he did not wish to speak with the CCRB. DOC relayed the same in its documentation of the refusal, noting that § 87(2)(b) stated "he didn't feel explaining about what happened with him and the police [sic]."
