DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. Lamount Deaderick was a named defendant in the civil action, Robert Linhart v. City of New York, et al., 150583-11, which was filed in New York County Supreme Court regarding an incident that occurred on September 18, 2010.
2. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) noted Other Misconduct by Lamount Deaderick, to wit, Failure to Prepare a Memo Book Entry. This finding related to the absence of a memo book entry reflecting his participation in conducting a strip search on June 15, 2011, at the 20th Precinct Station House of a teenager arrested by other officers.

This matter was referred to the New York Police Department (NYPD) which deemed substantiated the allegation that Lamount Deaderick, assigned to the 20th Precinct, on June 15, 2011, failed to make activity log entries regarding a strip search which occurred at that time, date and location.

3. As of October 13, 2020, the CCRB had pending against Lamount Deaderick an allegation of Abuse – Refusal to Obtain Medical Treatment. This allegation was made on September 21, 2020 about an incident on August 6, 2020.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.
