Case Summary

On February 7, 2020, a female § 87(2)(b) caller filed this complaint with the Internal Affairs Bureau via telephone, generating IAB Log #2020-4182. This complaint was forwarded to the CCRB, where it was received on February 21, 2020.

On February 26, 2020, a first call was placed to the number provided by IAB as the § 87(2)(b) complainant's number, and a male answered, said his girlfriend probably filed the complaint, and that he would have her call back when she was home. Between February 26, 2020 and February 28, 2020, two additional calls were placed, and voicemail messages were left. On March 3, 2020, a fourth call was placed, during which the owner of the number attempted to call back. A fifth call was placed that same day, and a female confirmed that she was the person who filed the complaint with IAB. She stated that she wished to remain § 87(2)(b) and wanted to withdraw her complaint because she was no longer interested in pursuing the complaint.

The § 87(2)(b) female caller affirmed that her withdrawal was voluntary and that she was not coerced by any member of the NYPD or the CCRB into withdrawing her complaint. Investigative Manager Alexander Opoku-Agyemang reviewed the recorded withdrawal (which begins at 0:55 into the recording attached to IA #17) and confirmed its adherence to agency guidelines. No withdrawal form was sent to the caller, as she did not provide an address. § 87(2)(g)
