Case Summary

On June 19, 2020, § 87(2)(b) called the IAB Command Center and filed this complaint on behalf of herself and a friend, whose name and contact information § 87(2)(b) refused to provide. § 87(2)(b) also refused to provide her date of birth and mailing address. On June 29, 2020, the case was received at the CCRB.

Between July 3, 2020 and July 17, 2020, § 87(2)(b) was called five times at the phone number she provided when she filed this complaint. Each time, there was no response, and sometimes voicemail messages were not left due to the voicemail box being full.

On July 16, 2020, and June 17, 2020, searches of the following databases were performed for § 87(2)(b) Lexis Nexis and CLEAR. The searches yielded a total of one potential mailing address, three potential email addresses, and five additional potential phone numbers. On July 17, 2020, the five additional potential phone numbers were each called. Three of the numbers proved to be out of service or incorrect, and a voicemail message was left at the fourth number. The fifth number corresponded to Janet § 87(2)(b) who confirmed being § 87(2)(b)'s mother. Janet § 87(2)(b) elected to speak with § 87(2)(b) before providing § 87(2)(b)'s contact information. On July 17, 2020, Janet § 87(2)(b) called and confirmed that her daughter was the complaint in this case, but said § 87(2)(b) had elected not to pursue the complaint. Janet § 87(2)(b) then provided § 87(2)(b)'s phone number, which matched the phone number § 87(2)(b) provided when she filed this complaint.

On July 17, 2020, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB and elected to withdraw this complaint. She said the complaint was "no longer relevant," and that she was withdrawing voluntarily, and was not coerced by any member of the NYPD or the CCRB. § 87(2)(b) refused to provide the name and contact information for the alleged victim, but agreed to sign and return a withdrawal complaint letter, which was emailed to her at an address she provided, and would be added to the case upon receipt. The withdrawal conversation was recorded digitally and can be found in IA #23, beginning at 00:10 minute mark. Investigative Manager Joy Almeyda reviewed the withdrawal audio and confirmed it conforms to agency standards.
