DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised of the following:

1. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about December 27, 2013, Walter Warkenthien abused his authority in searching a vehicle after the occupant of the vehicle was placed under arrest. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) also deemed substantiated the allegation that Walter Warkenthien failed to prepare a memobook entry in regards to the incident.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on August 3, 2014, Walter Warkenthien failed to appear at the Traffic Violations Bureau as scheduled.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Two of these are online databases maintained by the New York City Police Department (NYPD) (<https://nypdonline.org/link/1026>) and the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page>).

Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory. For some NYPD disciplinary matters in which a departmental trial was held for an officer, the decision in the trial is included in the NYPD database under the "Documents" tab for that officer.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated) are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
