DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about September 15, 2010, Francisco Alcantara committed the violation of of Abuse – Frisk. This arose out of an incident in the courtyard of buildings on 128th/129th Streets in the 25th Precinct at approximately 1:10 p.m. The complainant and another man were sitting on a bench when they were approached from behind by Officer Alcantara and another officer. The officers had been instructed by Captain that there had been complaints about drug dealing in the courtyard and that they should stop and “250” the individuals there. Officer Alcantara admitted to frisking the second man for his own safety, even though neither man’s behavior suggested that they were armed and he saw no suspicious bulges. (A different officer dealt with the complainant.) Officer Alcantara told CCRB investigators that it was routine to conduct a frisk for weapons in that area because people are known to carry weapons there. The CCRB assessed the facts and determined that absent reason to believe the individual had a weapon, Officer Alcantara did not have a reasonable basis for conducting the frisk.
