With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosure:

[REDACTED]

PO Santana on or about October 10, 2010 issued two summonses that have been deemed unconstitutional. PO Santana lost one vacation day

During the time he has been employed by the New York City Police Department, PO Santana has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in a federal civil lawsuit Drumgoole v. Santana, 14-cv-1918(ERK), in the Eastern District of New York. The nature of the action was police action, namely an allegation of excessive force. After a jury trial, the jury found the defendant, PO Santana, not guilty.

PO Santana received a command discipline for not carrying his shield while carrying his firearm off duty.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] during office hours.

Sincerely,
