Case Summary

On November 15, 2019, § 87(2)(b) came to the CCRB and filed this complaint as a walk-in. However, prior to the conclusion of his interview, before a verification form could be signed, § 87(2)(b) began to behave in an uncooperative manner and was asked to leave the CCRB.

Between November 21, 2019, and December 2, 2019, three calls were made to § 87(2)(b). On the first two calls, voicemail messages were left for him. On the third call he answered but stated that he was busy at that moment and asked to be called back later today. Two further calls were made to him later that day and on December 5, 2019, and voicemail messages were left on both occasions. § 87(2)(b) called back on December 5, 2019, and agreed to send a written notarized statement to the CCRB in order to proceed with his complaint. He stated that he did not have a pen at the moment to take down the mailing address but stated that he would call when he had one and was ready to write it down. § 87(2)(b) did not call back and a call was placed to him on December 9, 2019. § 87(2)(b) answered and promised to call back later that day to obtain the information for sending the written notarized statement. § 87(2)(b) did not call back and a call was placed to him on December 11, 2019. He answered, took down the requisite information, and promised to send a written notarized statement to the CCRB by December 27, 2019.

The CCRB did not received a written notarized statement from § 87(2)(b) by December 27, 2019, and so on that day a call was made to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) answered, acknowledged that he had not sent the written notarized statement, and promised to do so by an extended deadline of January 4, 2020. As of the date of this report, no written notarized statement has been received from § 87(2)(b).

Between November 21, 2019, and December 9, 2019, three letters were sent to § 87(2)(b). None of these letters were returned by the US Postal Service as undeliverable. A search of the NYC Department of Correction Inmate Tracking website on January 15, 2020, showed that § 87(2)(b) was not currently incarcerated and had not been incarcerated at any point while this complaint was open.
