Case Summary

On December 18, 2017, this complaint was filed by § 87(2)(b) in person at the Pelham Bay Diner in the Bronx. § 87(2)(g)

On December 14, 2017, § 87(2)(b) contacted the Detective Bureau to report unfair treatment by the 49th Precinct Detective Squad. Detective Sean Casey of the Detective Bureau informed her she could speak to a supervisor at the command or file a complaint.

On December 15, 2017, at approximately 5:00 p.m. § 87(2)(b) called back once again to report that she was refused the opportunity to speak to a supervisor. Det. Casey answered the phone once again. After speaking to Det. Casey for a few moments, he asked her to hold. Immediately after, § 87(2)(b) heard Det. Casey say, “It’s that § 87(2)(b) girl again, she’s got some problems with the 4-9 and her tenant. I was on the phone with her last night for 40 minutes. I looked her up, she’s a good piece of ass, shes nice to look at. She’s a little crazy, but she’s a nice piece of ass” (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority – Sexual Misconduct, Verbal; § 87(2)(g) (Allegation B: Offensive Language – Other; § 87(2)(g)

After Det. Casey returned to the phone, § 87(2)(b) confronted him regarding his comments; however, he disconnected the call.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: Detective Sean Casey made a sexually suggestive remark to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Offensive Language: Detective Sean Casey made remarks to § 87(2)(b) based upon her perceived mental health.

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) called the Detective Bureau office on December 14, 2017, and December 15, 2017, and she spoke to Det. Casey on both days. It is also undisputed that on the 14th, § 87(2)(b) provided her name and details of her interactions with the 49th Precinct, 49th Precinct Detective Squad, and her tenant to Det. Casey. Additionally, it is undisputed that on the 15th, Det. Casey discussed the content of his conversation with a fellow detective at the command. Finally, it is undisputed that after the call was disengaged, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) called the Detective Bureau back.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that on December 15, 2017, she called the Detective Bureau office to report once again that she was being mistreated by the 49th Precinct Detective Squad (Board Review 01). After briefly speaking with Det. Casey, he asked her to wait while he placed her on hold. She then heard Det. Casey say the following to an individual near him, “It’s that § 87(2)(b) (the name that appears on caller ID for § 87(2)(b) girl again, she’s got some problems with the 4-9 and her tenant. I was on the phone with her last night for 40 minutes. I looked her up, she’s a good piece of ass, she’s nice to look at. She’s a little crazy, but she’s a nice piece of ass.” When Det. Casey returned to the phone, § 87(2)(b) asked him if that is how he speaks to people, but he did not respond. The call was ultimately disengaged. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) called back and another detective answered the phone. § 87(2)(b) asked if “Detective Casey” was there and she was informed that “Detective Casey” was not there. She called back multiple times that night, and she was told that Det. Casey was not there each time.

During his CCRB interview, Det. Casey stated that he was not familiar with the name “§ 87(2)(b) (Board Review 02). While on the phone with § 87(2)(b) on the 14th of December, Det. Casey did tell her that if she had an issue with the way she was being treated, she could speak to a supervisor at the 49th Precinct Detective Squad supervisor or file a complaint. Det. Casey stated that he did not Google § 87(2)(b)'s name after speaking to her on the 14th. When she called back on the 15th, he informed her that he could not assist her. When asked if he attempted to place § 87(2)(b) on hold while speaking to her, but failed to do so, Det. Casey stated that phone system in his office was “tricky” because it was new. He did not place § 87(2)(b) on hold. Det. Casey acknowledged discussing § 87(2)(b)'s complaint with another detective, whose identity he could not recall. He initially denied saying “It’s that § 87(2)(b) girl again, she’s got some problems with the 4-9 and her tenant. I was on the phone with her last night for 40 minutes. I looked her up, she’s a good piece of ass, she’s nice to look at. She’s a little crazy, but she’s a nice piece of ass.” When asked if he said anything similar in substance, he said, “Not while she was on the phone.” When asked if he ever made a comment similar he replied, “how would I know that?” He then denied stating the allegation. Det. Casey stated that an individual, whose identity he could not remember, informed him that § 87(2)(b) called back later to “express indignation over a conversation that she overheard.”

The investigation conducted a Google image search for § 87(2)(b) which confirmed that multiple photos of her were posted online.
