Case Summary

On June 24, 2019, the IAB Command Center received an email from § 87(2)(b) who filed a complaint on behalf of an unidentified individual after reading an article about the incident and watching the accompanied video. It was referred to the CCRB via log number #2019-25010 and it was received on July 5, 2019. § 87(2)(b) is a reporting non-witness.

The video, which was initially posted on Twitter by § 87(2)(b), does not show the unidentified male providing any documentation to the officers, and the officers do not appear to give him any documentation. The NYPD made a statement through a PIX11 news article in regards to the incident where they confirmed that the victim was released without a summons. § 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(b) NYPD documents regarding this incident were requested and they will be added to the case file upon receipt.

On July 11, 2019, Twitter comments made by users about the video were reviewed, but no information about the victim was found. However, through the comments, § 87(2)(b) identified § 87(2)(b) as the individual who had filmed the video. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b)

A CLEAR search for § 87(2)(b) was conducted and it provided a telephone number for her. On July 18, 2019, a call was made to the telephone number provided by CLEAR for § 87(2)(b) and she answered. § 87(2)(b) said she was unable to speak in that moment, but she agreed to converse the next day. On July 19, 2019, the undersigned investigator received a missed call from § 87(2)(b) and she left a voicemail message asking for a call back. On the same date, a second call was placed to § 87(2)(b) at the same telephone number where contact had been previously established. No one answered and a voicemail message was left. On August 7, 2019, a third call was made to § 87(2)(b). The call went straight to voicemail and a voicemail message could not be left because the voicemail box was full. To date, § 87(2)(b) has not contacted the CCRB.
