Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), I write to disclose information concerning one of the People's expected trial witnesses in the above-referenced matter.

In May 2016, Undercover Officer C0256 ("UC 256"), pled guilty to four NYPD administrative charges and specifications involving conduct unbecoming to the good order, efficiency, or discipline of the Department. In sum and substance, the administrative specifications alleged that, on three dates in September and October 2013, UC 256 exaggerated the extent of an on-duty injury and inaccurately told an NYPD doctor that he/she was unable to drive as a result that injury. According to the specifications, this information was inaccurate because UC 256 was later seen driving. UC 256's reporting of inaccurate information to an NYPD doctor caused inaccurate entries to be made in the Department's medical records.

Enclosed with this letter are documents related to the administrative charges and specifications against UC 256. The documents have been redacted to protect UC 256's identity.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to limit questioning concerning this matter, or to otherwise object to its use or introduction in evidence during trial.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
Assistant District Attorney
