Case Summary

On November 24, 2019, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with IAB on behalf of herself and her child's father, § 87(2)(b) via telephone (IAB Original Log #2019-42302). It was referred to the CCRB where it was received on December 2, 2019.

Three letters were sent to § 87(2)(b) from December 17, 2019 to January 7, 2020. From December 9, 2019 to December 30, 2019, seven calls were made to § 87(2)(b) with voicemails left on five of these calls. On December 24, 2019, during the fourth call made to § 87(2)(b) she answered but was unable to speak and scheduled a call for December 26, 2019. During the call on December 26, 2019, § 87(2)(b) stated that she was unable to speak again and scheduled another call. When the investigator called § 87(2)(b) at the scheduled time, she did not answer, and a voicemail message was left. The investigator called § 87(2)(b) again on December 30, 2019 and left a voicemail to which she has not responded.

§ 87(2)(b) contacted the investigator on December 31, 2019 and stated his desire to withdraw from the investigative process. He explained that he wanted to withdraw because he did not remember the incident. § 87(2)(b) affirmed that his withdrawal was voluntary and that he was not coerced by any member of the NYPD or the CCRB into withdrawing his complaint. Investigative Manager Alexander Opoku-Agyemang reviewed the recorded withdrawal § 87(2)(g) and confirmed its adherence to agency guidelines. On December 31, 2019, a withdrawal form and self-addressed return envelope were mailed to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b)'s withdrawal form will be added to the case file upon receipt.
