Summary of Complaint

Follow details of the incident were obtained from the Civilian Complaint Report:

On September 26, 1998 complainant § 87(2)(b) filed a Civilian Complaint Report at the 48th precinct. He stated that at 10:00am he was talking to his 'girl' by § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx. PO Maysonet approached them and told him that he 'better move in five (5) minutes'. PO Maysonet also stated that if he returns and § 87(2)(b) is still there, he was 'going to put something' on him.

- No Further details were available.

Results of Investigation

On September 29, 1998 a message was left for § 87(2)(b) with his grandmother. I also mailed him a letter requesting that he call me. On October 5, 1998 another message was left for § 87(2)(b) with his grandmother. She informed me that § 87(2)(b) has been on vacation since September 26, 1998 and will return on October 10, 1998. A second letter was mailed out to him again requesting that he call me. On October 14th and 15th, I spoke to § 87(2)(b)'s grandmother again. She confirmed to me that her grandson, § 87(2)(b), had received my messages and letters. I explained to her that his case would be closed and if he wished to further pursue his case, he has 18-months to do so. It was explained to her that if he does pursue his case, § 87(2)(b) would have to send a letter expressing such interest.
