DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. As of January 13, 2020, the New York Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation that Edward Kenyon, while assigned to the 70th Precinct, on or about September 7, 2011, wrongfully made discourteous or otherwise inappropriate remarks regarding the West Indian parade, the Department's presence at the West Indian parade, and/or its attendees on a Facebook community page entitled "No More West Indian Day Detail." Police Officer Edward Kenyon took a guilty plea to this allegation. According to an IAB memo issued around the time the charges were filed, the posting by Edward Kenyon, under the name Ned Kenyon, had the following statements attributed to it:

"There isn't even a permit for this 'parade'. Put electrical fences around the area next year, no police and let them kill each other. The mayor's response is 'This just can't happen.' No shit. A two-day event for these animals yet the Saint Patty's Day parade is cut short and they want quality of life summonses. Gimme a break. The dictator needs to leave office. Is he at the jump off? No, he is at home relaxing, while cops have to deal with the savagery."

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.
