With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosure: the People are aware that during the time he has been employed by the New York City Police Department, Police Officer Robert Dominicci has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in several federal civil lawsuits.

On a prior date, the People performed a simple name search of the Public Access to Court Electronic Records ["PACER"] website, and found the following cases which list "Robert Dominicci" as a civil defendant together with the "City of New York" in cases in the Eastern or Southern Districts of New York:

1. Pellegrini v. City of New York, et.al., 1:05-cv-06115-NG-SMG, filed in United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York, settled in 2006 for $7,500 to be paid to the plaintiff, without admission of fault or liability.
2. Farmer v. City of New York, et al., 1:07-cv-02982-NRB Filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, settled in 2008 for $24,000 to be paid to the plaintiff, without admission of fault or liability.

Additionally, the NYPD substantiated an allegation of "traffic incident – leaving scene" from September 26, 2016 against Officer Dominicci. He received a letter of instruction.
