DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. "P.O. Diane Roman, of Midtown South Pct., shield 6637" [emphasis added] is a named defendant in the amended complaint in the civil action Lilliam Lebron v. City of NY et al., 303870-11, which was filed in Bronx Supreme Court in connection with Bronx arrest #B10685529. The date of the incident is October 20, 2010, and the nature of the action is police action. Diana Roman [emphasis added], has shield number 6637 but has never been assigned to the Bronx. Diana Roman has informed us that she was not involved in this arrest and believes that the plaintiff meant to name an officer named Diane Roman, with whom she has been confused in the past.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) substantiated an allegation from June 5, 2013, that Police Officer Diana Roman failed to appear for a Traffic Violations Bureau proceeding.
3. As of March 16, 2021, NYPD has pending allegations from April 17, 2018, that Police Officer Diana Roman failed to: (1) prepare an accident report [three such allegations]; (2) respond in a timely manner to a 911 call [three such allegations]; (3) notify a supervisor three such allegations]; and (4) notify the Internal Affairs Bureau [two such allegations], involving an on-duty traffic incident.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Two of these are online databases maintained by the New York City Police Department (<https://nypdonline.org/link/1026>) and the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page>). Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
