Case Summary

On April 19, 2013, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the Civilian Complaint Review Board via its call processing system on behalf of two unidentified males regarding an incident in front of § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn on April 17, 2013. § 87(2)(b) reported that she read the name “Edelman” from the lieutenant’s shield. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) also provided a badge number for a police officer involved, § 87(2)(g)

Following the incident, § 87(2)(b) obtained the telephone number of one of the unidentified male’s mothers. She provided this telephone number to the investigation. She believed that the mother’s last name was § 87(2)(b) but was unable to provide further identifying or contact information for the victims of the incident. During the period starting April 24, 2013, and ending June 4, 2013, the number for § 87(2)(b) was called five times and left five voicemails requesting a call back to discuss this incident. On June 20, 2013, § 87(2)(b) was contacted, at which point she confirmed that she could provide no further information about the victims of this incident. To date, no one has responded to the investigation’s attempts to contact the victims. § 87(2)(g)
