DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) substantiated an allegation from March 6, 2019, that Officer Gonzalez failed to notify an on-duty supervisor or the Internal Affairs Bureau of an off-duty altercation between two off-duty police officers. Officer Gonzalez was off duty and at a bar when an NYPD lieutenant, having consumed too much alcohol, placed his hands around the neck of another NYPD officer and proceeded to strangle him. Another NYPD lieutenant had to pull the first lieutenant off the officer.

2. As of October 13, 2020, the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board has pending for Officer Gonzalez an allegation of Discourtesy - Word, for an incident on October 2, 2020.

3. As of December 16, 2020, NYPD has pending allegations that Officer Gonzalez did not request a supervisor; was condescending, dismissive, and disrespectful to a complainant; and was discourteous in her words.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
