DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) substantiated an allegation that Lauren Liebhauser failed to take police action and failed to notify a supervisor. These findings arose out of an incident from April 8, 2019, at approximately 2352 hours, where Officer Liebhauser responded to a 10-10 calls for help. Upon arrival at the location, a private house, Officer Liebhauser and her partner knocked on the front door and window several times with no response, and checked the perimeter, with negative results. Officer Liebhauser and her partner could not gain entry and marked the job 10-91 (non-crime corrected) at 0036 hours. At 0212, different NYPD officers responded to a wellness check, where they were met by the unknown female caller, who had a key to the location. Those officers gained entry, where they discovered a male on the floor of the first floor of the location, deceased.
2. As of February 10, 2021, the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has pending for Lauren Liebhauser allegations of Abuse of Authority – Seizure of Property, and Abuse of Authority – Search (of person). These allegations are from an incident on March 1, 2020.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Two of these are online databases maintained by the New York City Police Department (<https://nypdonline.org/link/1026>) and the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page>). Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
