Case Summary

On January 24, 2014, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via telephone on behalf of her twelve year old son, § 87(2)(b) did not witness this incident.

On January 16, 2014, at around 9:30 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was stopped at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx by PO Diego Marin of the 46th Precinct, and Sgt. Mohamadyah Patwekar and PO Ysia Collado of Patrol Borough Bronx. The following allegations resulted from the incident:

Allegation A – Abuse of Authority: In front of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, PO Diego Marin stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation B – Abuse of Authority: In front of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Sgt. Mohamadyah Patwekar supervised the stop of § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation C – Abuse of Authority: In front of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, PO Ysia Collado damaged § 87(2)(b)'s property.

Allegation D – Abuse of Authority: In front of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, PO Diego Marin damaged § 87(2)(b)'s property.

Allegation E – Force: Inside the 46th Precinct stationhouse, Sgt. Mohamadyah Patwekar used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation F – Discourtesy: Inside the 46th Precinct stationhouse, Sgt. Mohamadyah Patwekar spoke rudely to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

Mediation was not offered to § 87(2)(b) given his arrest, and his claim that he was injured during this incident.

Results of Investigation

Civilian Statements

Complainant/Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) was § 87(2)(b) old at the time of the incident.
- § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Statement

§ 87(2)(b) provided an interview over the phone on April 15, 2014 (enc. C-1 – C-4), and is summarized below.

On January 16, 2014, at around 9:30 p.m., § 87(2)(b) had been playing X-Box with his friends § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) (last names and contact information unknown) at § 87(2)(b)'s house, located in the vicinity of 183rd Street and Walton Avenue in the Bronx (the investigation later determined that the residence was § 87(2)(b)). They had been playing for three hours before all three exited the residential building. Once they were outside, § 87(2)(b) was immediately greeted by three uniformed officers, PO Diego Marin, Sgt. Mohamadyah Patwekar, and PO Ysia Collado. § 87(2)(b) had stated that he was greeted by four officers, but the investigation has determined otherwise.)

Sgt. Patwekar, who § 87(2)(b) recognized as a Sergeant because of his Sergeant's shield, asked § 87(2)(b) "where are you going," and stated that he was not supposed to be there. § 87(2)(b) responded that it was okay for him to be there as it was his friend's house. Both § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were also saying that it was okay for § 87(2)(b) to be at the location. PO Marin and PO Collado were not saying anything besides telling § 87(2)(b) that he was going to be brought to the stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) was walking away from the officers at this time so PO Collado and PO Marin grabbed his arms and pushed him against a wall while Sgt. Patwekar frisked and searched his pants. PO Marin also patted § 87(2)(b)'s pants and went inside his pockets, but did not recover anything. § 87(2)(b) denied having anything in his pants. Sgt. Patwekar then handcuffed § 87(2)(b). In the process of grabbing § 87(2)(b) PO Collado and PO Marin ripped § 87(2)(b)'s hoodie from the jacket to which it had been attached.

All three officers brought § 87(2)(b) to the stationhouse in a police van. At the stationhouse, because § 87(2)(b) was cursing at Sgt. Patwekar, the latter slammed § 87(2)(b)'s head against a wall, and said "Shut the fuck up." § 87(2)(b) incurred a mark on his head as a result of the incident but did not go to the hospital for it. He does not have any photos of the mark. He also was not aware of any other civilians at the stationhouse at the time.

§ 87(2)(b) was held in the stationhouse for about four hours before being released. He never learned what the purpose of his apprehension was. He was not summonsed.

Additional Contact Attempts

After obtaining a phone interview with § 87(2)(b) the investigator was unable to reach him a second time § 87(2)(b), and the investigator attempting to contact him numerous times via telephone.

Contact information for § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) could not be obtained as § 87(2)(b) did not have the information, nor did he have any other identifying information for them.

NYPD Statements:

Subject Officer: PO DIEGO MARIN

- PO Marin was § 87(2)(b) old at the time of the incident. He is a Hispanic man who is 5'5" tall, weighs 170 pounds, and has black hair and brown eyes.
- PO Marin worked between the hours of 5:30 p.m. on January 16, 2014 and 2:05 a.m. on January 17, 2014. He was Sergeant Mohamadyah Patwekar's Operator, was working with PO Ysia Collado, was in uniform, and driving in marked patrol vehicle number 8601.

Memo Book

PO Marin's memo book entries pertaining to this incident (enc. D-1 – D-3) state verbatim that at "9:37 p.m., arrest/ 1 Juv. at § 87(2)(b) off. At § 87(2)(b). At 9:49 p.m., arrived at 46 Pct. with § 87(2)(b) DOB § 87(2)(b) m; § 87(2)(b) DOB § 87(2)(b). Address: § 87(2)(b)."

CCRB Statement

PO Marin was interviewed at the CCRB on July 31, 2014 (enc. D-4 – D-6). His in-person testimony is summarized below.

On January 16, 2014, at around 9:30 p.m., PO Marin was driving northbound on Morris Avenue in the Bronx when he observed around four juveniles sitting on the front steps of § 87(2)(b).

Sgt. Patwekar was sitting in the passenger seat and PO Collado in the back. PO Marin stopped the car in front of § 87(2)(b) with the driver's side facing the entrance, and instructed the group of juveniles through his rolled down window "to please disperse." The juveniles were blocking the path of the residents, obstructing pedestrian traffic. This problem has been something the building's residents have previously complained to the officers about. The juveniles did not move, nor did they say anything to the officers. After less than a minute, PO Marin opened his car door to exit the vehicle and approach the juveniles. PO Marin explained that he wanted to speak with the juveniles to determine what they were doing there since they looked very young, it was late at night, and the area is known to be a drug-prone location. He did not confer with Sgt. Patwekar or PO Collado about his intentions.

However, when PO Marin went to open the door, the juveniles all fled before PO Marin could exit the vehicle. Therefore, PO Marin got back inside his patrol car, and drove around the block. One of the juveniles, § 87(2)(b) had been wearing a blue jacket, and after driving around the block, PO Marin saw § 87(2)(b) wearing the same jacket again standing around with three other juveniles in front of § 87(2)(b). PO Marin pulled up to § 87(2)(b) exited the vehicle with Sgt. Patwekar and PO Collado, and told § 87(2)(b) to stop. The other three juveniles fled, but § 87(2)(b) remained at the location.

PO Collado stayed in the back while PO Marin asked § 87(2)(b) why he ran away and why he was out so late at night. § 87(2)(b) was angry at the officers for stopping him, cursed at the officers, and complained "why are you bothering me?" § 87(2)(b) did not have any identification on him. Because of the lack of identification, his age, and that he had ran from the officers when the latter wanted to talk about blocking pedestrian traffic, PO Marin decided to bring § 87(2)(b) to the stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) was not placed against a wall or a fence, but was merely standing up, unobstructed, when PO Marin handcuffed him. Sgt. Patwekar had grabbed hold of one of § 87(2)(b)'s arms while PO Marin put the handcuffs on, but did not otherwise have physical contact with § 87(2)(b). Before being handcuffed, § 87(2)(b) did shift away from PO Marin's grip. He did not try to flee, but was avoiding having to make physical contact with PO Marin. No force was used in apprehending § 87(2)(b). PO Marin denied ripping § 87(2)(b)'s jacket. § 87(2)(b) did not complain of any injuries. PO Collado never made physical contact with § 87(2)(b).

PO Marin frisked § 87(2)(b) but did not retrieve anything. He then placed the latter into the patrol vehicle. None of the officers used any profanity against § 87(2)(b) and specifically did not say "shut the fuck up." PO Marin explained that § 87(2)(b) has previously been apprehended by 46th Precinct officers, and that a couple of days after this incident, PO Collado again apprehended him for graffiti. At the stationhouse, § 87(2)(b) continually cursed and yelled at the officers. When PO Marin called § 87(2)(b)'s mother, § 87(2)(b) she initially refused to come and retrieve her son, saying "stop bothering my son." Eventually, after a female officer called, § 87(2)(b) came to the precinct stationhouse.

In the 46th Precinct's Command Log, it states that § 87(2)(b) was charged with § 87(2)(b). PO Marin explained that Sgt. Patwekar wrote the entry, and that he is not allowed to touch the command log. PO Marin does not know why the charge states "§ 87(2)(b)" and does not recall discussing § 87(2)(b) with Sgt. Patwekar as a potential charge. Regarding the policy of bringing juveniles to the stationhouse, PO Marin explained it varies. PO Marin and Sgt. Patwekar decided to bring § 87(2)(b) to the stationhouse after the latter had fled from the officers. § 87(2)(b) was not summonsed because he is under sixteen, but a juvenile report was written for him. PO Marin denied slamming § 87(2)(b)'s head against a wall.

Subject Officer: SGT. MOHAMADYAH PATWEKAR

- Sgt. Patwekar was § 87(2)(b) old at the time of the incident. He is an Asian man who is 5'7" tall, weighs 150 pounds, and has black hair and brown eyes.
- Sgt. Patwekar worked between the hours of 5:15 p.m. on January 16, 2014, to 2:12 a.m. of the following day. He was the Impact Sergeant, was working with PO Diego Marin and PO Ysia Collado, was in uniform, and driving in marked van number 8601.

- Sgt. Patwekar is assigned to Patrol Borough Bronx, but he was, and still is, working out of the 46th Precinct stationhouse during the incident.

Memo Books

Sgt. Patwekar's memo book entries pertaining to this incident (enc. F-1 – F-4) state verbatim that “at 9:37 p.m., one under by PO Marin for § 87(2)(b) at § 87(2)(b) Defendant § 87(2)(b) (The investigation determined that the incident location was actually § 87(2)(b))

CCRB Statement

Sgt. Patwekar was interviewed twice at the CCRB § 87(2)(g).
 § 87(2)(b) The first interview was conducted on September 8, 2014 (enc. F-5 – F-6), and the second one on September 29, 2014 (enc. F-7 – F-8). § 87(2)(g)

On January 16, 2014, at around 9:30 p.m., Sgt. Patwekar was driving down Morris Avenue in the Bronx with PO Marin and PO Collado. The owner of a bodega located on Morris Avenue, the exact location of which Sgt. Patwekar was unsure, had been complaining to the police for the past five months, about a group of kids blocking his store entrance and stealing stuff. Sgt. Patwekar and PO Marin noticed three teenaged boys standing in front of the aforementioned bodega, so they pulled up their patrol vehicle right next to the entrance. Two of the boys immediately fled upon seeing the police car, but § 87(2)(b) remained standing in front of the entrance. PO Marin and Sgt. Patwekar exited their vehicle and approached § 87(2)(b)

PO Marin told § 87(2)(b) to move away from the bodega entrance as he was blocking pedestrian traffic. He issued this command twice, and each time, § 87(2)(b) replied “Fuck you,” and refused to move. After the issuance of the second command, Sgt. Patwekar made the decision that § 87(2)(b) was to be arrested, and told PO Marin “he’s under.” PO Marin then handcuffed § 87(2)(b) without incident, and transported him to the stationhouse. Sgt. Patwekar never had any physical interaction with § 87(2)(b). Neither he nor PO Marin ever slammed § 87(2)(b)'s head against a fence or wall. § 87(2)(b) never attempted to flee, and his jacket did not rip. After being handcuffed, § 87(2)(b) remained very calm, and did not use any further profanity with the officers. Neither PO Marin nor Sgt. Patwekar used any profanity, and specifically did not say “Shut the fuck up” to § 87(2)(b)

During his second interview, Sgt. Patwekar clarified that he, PO Marin, and PO Collado had originally stopped § 87(2)(b) and two other boys in front of a store on Morris Avenue, but arrested § 87(2)(b) at § 87(2)(b). However, because he was interviewed more than six months after the incident, he did not recall during the first interview that § 87(2)(b) was arrested at a second location. Because the investigator provided additional details for the incident during the second interview, Sgt. Patwekar subsequently remembered that § 87(2)(b) and his two friends had fled from the bodega, and when PO Marin and Sgt. Patwekar pursued them, only § 87(2)(b) was captured; the other two boys were too fast. Sgt. Patwekar confirmed that he and PO Marin pursued the three boys on foot, not in their vehicle. He could not recall what § 87(2)(b) was wearing on the day of the incident. The investigator showed a picture of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, which is where § 87(2)(b) was ultimately arrested. Sgt. Patwekar recognized the photograph of the location. When asked about his inconsistent testimonies, Sgt. Patwekar affirmed that he did not intentionally mislead the investigation in saying during his first interview that “§ 87(2)(b) remained standing in front of the entrance” of the store on Morris Avenue.

Once § 87(2)(b) was brought to the stationhouse, he was cursing and yelling at the officers. Sgt. Patwekar confirmed his pedigree, but PO Marin was the one who processed the arrest before placing § 87(2)(b) in the juvenile room. Sgt. Patwekar did not say “Shut the fuck up” to § 87(2)(b) nor did he slam § 87(2)(b)'s head into a wall. The investigator showed Sgt. Patwekar the command log entry for § 87(2)(b)'s arrest. Sgt. Patwekar recognized his handwriting and when asked why § 87(2)(b)'s charges said § 87(2)(b) he stated that he was going off of what PO Marin had initially told him at the incident location, where § 87(2)(b) and his friends were observed standing in the entrance of the bodega. The charges as described in the command log are not final, and only a preliminary description. Sgt. Patwekar had assumed that PO Marin had described § 87(2)(b) and his friends as being inside the bodega, and therefore potentially § 87(2)(b).

Sgt. Patwekar previously encountered § 87(2)(b) once before when an officer arrested the latter for possession of a knife, and Sgt. Patwekar verified the arrest. He has not had any further interaction with § 87(2)(b) after this incident on January 16, 2014.

Subject Officer: PO YSIA COLLADO

- PO Collado was § 87(2)(b) old at the time of the incident. She is a Hispanic woman who is 5'4" tall, weighs 160 pounds, and has black hair and brown eyes.
- PO Collado worked between the hours of 5:30 p.m. on January 16, 2014, until 2:05 a.m. of the following day. She was assigned as the Sergeant's Operator with PO Diego Marin and Sgt. Mohamadyah Patwekar, was in uniform, and driving in marked patrol vehicle number 8601.
- PO Collado is assigned to Patrol Borough Bronx, but she was, and still is, working out of the 46th Precinct.

Memo Book

PO Collado's memo book entries regarding this incident (enc. E-1 – E-3) state verbatim that “at 9:37 p.m., arrest 1 juvi at § 87(2)(b) 1 off at § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Statement

PO Collado was interviewed at the CCRB on August 25, 2014 (enc. E-4 – E-5). § 87(2)(g)

On January 16, 2014, at around 9:30 p.m., PO Marin was driving the patrol vehicle in which Sgt. Patwekar and PO Collado sat in the front passenger and back seat, respectively. It was PO Collado's first day on patrol and PO Marin and Sgt. Patwekar were showing her around the neighborhood. They had dropped a civilian off about two minutes prior to Sgt. Patwekar spotting § 87(2)(b) with about three other thirteen year old boys, obstructing pedestrian traffic in front of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, a residential building. There were residents trying to get in and out, and § 87(2)(b) and his friends were in the way. PO Marin also noticed this obstruction. Sgt. Patwekar told PO Marin to stop the car and tell the boys to leave the stoop. PO Marin called to the boys to leave, but none of them moved. Sgt. Patwekar then decided that all three officers should get out and inform the boys that they were to be summonsed for an infraction. Before all three officers were able to exit their vehicle, § 87(2)(b) and his three friends ran away. They had not said anything to the officers beforehand.

PO Collado, Sgt. Patwekar, and PO Marin went back into their vehicle to continue patrol. They drove around the block, onto Walton Avenue, and spotted § 87(2)(b) identified by his blue jacket, standing around with three other boys. The officers were only able to definitively recognize § 87(2)(b) they did not know if the other three boys were the same ones from before. They pulled up about a car length away from § 87(2)(b) exited their vehicle, and approached him. § 87(2)(b) this time did not attempt to flee since, according to PO Collado, he did not see the officers approaching. The officers informed the other boys that they could leave, which they did. PO Marin asked § 87(2)(b) why he ran, and explained that he was to be arrested. § 87(2)(b) was not hostile, and had a complacent demeanor. PO Marin did not have any problems getting § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs. Besides grabbing onto § 87(2)(b)'s hands, PO Marin did not make contact with any other part of § 87(2)(b)'s body. Neither Sgt. Patwekar nor PO Collado had any physical interaction with § 87(2)(b) PO Marin did not push § 87(2)(b) against a fence or a wall, nor did he slam § 87(2)(b)'s head against a wall. Neither PO Marin nor Sgt. Patwekar ever said "Shut the fuck up" during the incident.

Once § 87(2)(b) was placed inside the patrol vehicle, he became irate and hostile. He kept shouting "Suck my dick" to the officers. He did however calm down once he arrived at the stationhouse. PO Collado remembered that at the stationhouse, Sgt. Patwekar recognized § 87(2)(b) because another officer had arrested him previously.

NYPD Documents

Command Log

§ 87(2)(b)'s arrest is recorded as occurring at 9:46 p.m., with the arrest location as § 87(2)(b) for § 87(2)(b) (enc. G-1). The investigation confirmed however that the incident location was § 87(2)(b) as both PO Marin and PO Collado have that address listed in their memo books.

Documents Not Requested

Given § 87(2)(b)'s status as a minor, his juvenile report would not have been accessible to the investigator. § 87(2)(b)'s mother did not return a signed unsealing order mailed to her.

Status of Civil Proceedings

- As of October 17, 2014, § 87(2)(b) has not filed a notice of claim with the City of New York on behalf of § 87(2)(b) regarding this incident (enc. J-12).

Civilian Criminal History

- Office of Court Administration would not have § 87(2)(b)'s criminal history given his status as a minor (enc. H-1 – H-5).

Civilian CCRB History

- This is the first CCRB complaint filed on the behalf of § 87(2)(b) (enc. A-4).
- § 87(2)(b) has filed one other CCRB complaint (enc. A-5):
 - § 87(2)(b)

Subject Officers CCRB History

- PO Marin has been a member of the service for one year and this is the first CCRB complaint filed against him (enc. A-1).
- Sgt. Patwekar has been a member of the service for nine years and there are no substantiated CCRB allegations against him (enc. A-2).
- PO Collado has been a member of the service for one year and this is the first CCRB complaint against her (enc. A-3).

Conclusion

Identification of Subject Officer

PO Marin, Sgt. Patwekar, and PO Collado both confirmed their interaction with § 87(2)(b)

PO Collado was a secondary officer during this interaction as it was her first day on patrol and PO Marin and Sgt. Patwekar were showing her around. PO Marin attributed the stopping of § 87(2)(b) to himself, but Sgt. Patwekar was also the highest ranking officer at the time. § 87(2)(g)

Allegations Not Pledged

§ 87(2)(b) was frisked and searched as per procedure, because officers were transporting him to the stationhouse.

§ 87(2)(g)

Investigative Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A – Abuse of Authority: In front of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, PO Diego Marin stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation B – Abuse of Authority: In front of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Sgt. Mohamadyah Patwekar supervised the stop of § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that when he exited his friend’s residential building, officers immediately approached him and apprehended him. § 87(2)(b) had been inside the residential building for a few hours prior to encountering the officers.

Both PO Marin and PO Collado stated that they first encountered § 87(2)(b) in front of § 87(2)(b) blocking pedestrian traffic, with some other juveniles. When § 87(2)(b) and his friends refused to comply with the officers’ commands to disperse, PO Marin, PO Collado, and Sgt. Patwekar started exiting their patrol vehicle. According to PO Marin, the officers exited their vehicle after having observed them for less than a minute. Before the officers could completely exit, the juveniles fled the scene.

After § 87(2)(b) and his friends fled, the officers got back into their vehicle. After driving around the block they encountered § 87(2)(b) identifying him by his blue jacket. The officers approached § 87(2)(b). PO Marin asked him why he ran away, and why he was out so late. § 87(2)(b) did not have identification on him, and because of this, his age, and that he ran from officers, PO Marin decided to bring him back to the stationhouse.

Sgt. Patwekar’s statements were inconsistent with that of PO Marin and PO Collado.

According to People v. Coley, 967 N.Y.S.2d 868 (Crim. Ct. Bronx Cty., 2013) (enc. AA-1 – AA-3), a person obstructing pedestrian traffic only commits a chargeable offense if he or she demonstrates a “culpable mental state of intent to cause public inconvenience.” To establish intent, the information that officers provide about the situation or its context, must “support an inference that defendant possessed the requisite intent.” Furthermore, “the temporary inconvenience of pedestrians being required to walk around defendant and the apprehended others, without more, is insufficient to sustain” a charge.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation C – Abuse of Authority: In front of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, PO Ysia Collado damaged § 87(2)(b) s property.

Allegation D – Abuse of Authority: In front of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, PO Diego Marin damaged § 87(2)(b) s property.

Allegation E – Force: Inside the 46th Precinct stationhouse, Sgt. Mohamadyah Patwekar used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation F – Discourtesy: Inside the 46th Precinct stationhouse, Sgt. Mohamadyah Patwekar spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that because PO Collado and PO Marin were grabbing onto him, they ripped his jacket in the process. He also alleged that once brought to the stationhouse, because he was cursing, Sgt. Patwekar slammed his head against a wall and told him “Shut the fuck up.” § 87(2)(b) received injuries as a result of his head being slammed, but did not document the injuries nor did he seek medical attention.

Although § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were listed as witnesses to Allegations D and E, they could not be reached. Additionally, § 87(2)(b) did not know if there were any civilians around at the stationhouse when he was brought there.

All three officers denied the allegations.
