Case Summary

On May 24, 2019, § 87(2)(b) called 911 and was later connected with the IAB Command Center, with whom he filed this complaint on behalf of an individual he did not know, later identified as § 87(2)(b) generating IAB log #19-20730. This case was received at the CCRB on May 31, 2019.

The investigation has not obtained any video evidence. A request for body-worn camera footage submitted on June 10, 2019 is still pending.

On June 3, 2019, § 87(2)(b) was called. He answered and confirmed his contact information, but stated that he was unable to talk further because he was at work. § 87(2)(b) scheduled a call back later that day. § 87(2)(b) was subsequently called at the prearranged time. He answered and provided a brief phone statement, but was unable to complete the call as he was about to get on the subway. § 87(2)(b) scheduled a call back for later that same day. § 87(2)(b) was called back twice that same day—once at the second prearranged time, and again a few hours later—and two please-call voicemail message was left. Between June 6, 2019, and July 1, 2019, § 87(2)(b) was called eight times, but on each occasion there was no answer, and in total eight please-call voicemail messages were left. Between June 7, 2019, and June 14, 2019, two unreturned letters were mailed to § 87(2)(b)'s confirmed mailing address, and two unreturned emails were sent to his confirmed email address. § 87(2)(b) has not contacted the CCRB.

§ 87(2)(b) was identified based on an AIDED report received on June 28, 2019, which included her name, date of birth, address, and a phone number which proved to be incorrect. The original IAB log contained no identifying information for § 87(2)(b).

Searches of the following databases were conducted for § 87(2)(b)'s contact information: LexisNexis, CLEAR, the NYPD's Booking and Arraignment Disposition System (BADs), and the CCRB's Complaint Tracking System (CTS). These searches revealed zero additional possible mailing addresses; three possible email addresses, each of which proved to be out of service; and two possible phone numbers, both of which proved to be out of service.

Between June 28, 2019, and July 9, 2019, two unreturned letters were mailed to the § 87(2)(b)'s only possible mailing address. To date, § 87(2)(b) has not contacted the CCRB.

On July 16, 2019, searches of the DOC for NYC and DOC for NYS inmate lookup databases revealed that neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) is incarcerated.
