With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

The People are aware that during the time he has been employed by the New York City Police Department, Detective Edward Buddin has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in a federal civil lawsuit.

1. Calvin Brooks v. New York City Police Department, 1:18-cv-08654-CM – dismissed in 2018 without prejudice in the Southern District of New York after the plaintiff failed to comply with the Court's order.

In the cases that settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal with prejudice was filed with the respective court, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated.

A review of Detective Edward Buddin's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On or about September 2007, Detective Edward Buddin had a substantiated departmental investigation for using an individual who's known to the NYPD as a confidential informant
