

1. On August 2019 Detective Muirhead had a substantiated departmental investigation for wrongfully consuming an intoxicant, failure to remain at the scene of an incident, and making misleading statements, in that he claimed to have no knowledge of a vehicular accident, about which he did have knowledge. Detective Muirhead forfeited ten (10) vacation days and was suspended without pay for thirty (30) days.
2. On February 3, 2020 Detective Muirhead had a substantiated departmental investigation for disclosing confidential information in that he received a photo of a graphic unusual occurrence report, and disseminated it via text message to other members of the service for which he received a schedule "C" command discipline.

A review of the officer's CCRB history revealed the following:

1. On November 24, 2010 Detective Muirhead had a substantiated CCRB complaint for an improper frisk and he received verbal instructions.
2. On February 11, 2011 Detective Muirhead had a substantiated CCRB complaint for an improper stop and search and that he used excessive force. No disciplinary action was taken by the police department.
