Case Summary

On May 20, 2015, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via the US Postal Service. This complaint was received by the CCRB on May 21, 2015. On May 22, 2015, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) who answered the call and provided a brief phone statement. At the time of this call, § 87(2)(b) said that it was too difficult for her to come to the CCRB for an interview. § 87(2)(b) was unable to schedule an offsite interview at the time of the call. On May 27, 2015 and May 28, 2015, calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) who answered the call, but refused to schedule an interview during either call. § 87(2)(b) was offered interviews in Brooklyn at her residence at § 87(2)(b), close to her place of work in § 87(2)(b), or at a third neutral location of her choosing. § 87(2)(b) was also explicitly informed the interview could be worked around her schedule. § 87(2)(b) refused all of these options, because she did not feel that she should have to take the time to conduct an interview, as everything that the CCRB needed was in her letter. § 87(2)(b) said that she did not want to move forward with a complaint if it required an in person interview. § 87(2)(b) said that she was not coerced by anyone to make this decision. Manager Almeyda listened to the recorded withdrawal and verified that it meets agency standards. § 87(2)(g)
