Case Summary

On February 15, 2019, § 87(2)(b) called IAB and filed the following complaint, generating original log # 19-6340. The CCRB received the complaint on February 22, 2019.

On February 15, 2019, at approximately 1:00 p.m., on the corner of § 87(2)(b) in Queens, § 87(2)(b) called 911 regarding a dispute he was having with his neighbor. Police Officer Dawn Jewels and Police Officer Amos Ryan of the 107th Precinct responded to the location. § 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Jewels would not get involved with the dispute and returned to the officer's vehicle. As § 87(2)(b) approached the vehicle, PO Jewels allegedly told him they could take him to the mental ward (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) asked PO Jewels for her shield number and she allegedly did not provide it to him (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(4-b), § 87(2)(f) There is no video evidence regarding this complaint.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A - Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Dawn Jewels threatened to remove § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.

Allegation B – Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Dawn Jewels refused to provide her shield number to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) (Board Review 01) testified that when PO Jewels arrived on the scene, she exited from the passenger side and asked § 87(2)(b) if he called the police. § 87(2)(b) confirmed that he did and PO Jewels asked if he was the individual who had been complaining about police cars being parked on the sidewalk in front of § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) acknowledged that he had made various complaints because he believed that officers were misusing their police placards. As § 87(2)(b) attempted to tell PO Jewels that he wanted to file a report against his neighbor, PO Jewels interrupted him and said she could not help him and could take him to the mental ward. § 87(2)(b) asked for PO Jewels' badge number three consecutive times and she ignored his request, turned her back to him, and began to get back into her vehicle. § 87(2)(b) did not have PO Jewels' shield number when he filed this complaint. § 87(2)(b) observed PO Ryan sitting in the driver's seat and recognized him. He told PO Jewels that he now knew why they refused to help him: it was because of PO Ryan. PO Jewels told § 87(2)(b) to have a good day and they drove away.

PO Jewels (Board Review 02) testified that when she arrived at the location she observed § 87(2)(b) walking towards their vehicle and recognized him. She had seen § 87(2)(b) while on patrol before, specifically at the Seven Eleven. PO Jewels exited the vehicle and asked § 87(2)(b) if he had called the police. § 87(2)(b) began to yell at PO Jewels and said, "Oh it's you two" (referring to PO Jewels and her partner, PO Ryan). § 87(2)(b) continued to act in a belligerent manner but could not cite specific examples. PO Jewels could not recall exactly what § 87(2)(b) aside from that he was being uncooperative. Because she was unable to hold a conversation with § 87(2)(b) PO Jewels informed him that they were going to leave. PO Jewels did not tell § 87(2)(b) she would take him to the mental ward, he was not behaving in a manner that would have warranted his removal to the hospital. PO Jewels could not recall if § 87(2)(b) asked for her shield number and thus could not recall if she refused to provide it to him.

PO Ryan's (Board Review 03) testimony was consistent with that of PO Jewels regarding the nature of § 87(2)(b)'s uncooperative behavior when they first arrived at the location. He was yelling and stating that he did not want to speak with them. PO Ryan remained in the vehicle for the duration of the incident and could not recall if PO Jewels exited the vehicle. PO Ryan did not hear PO Jewels tell § 87(2)(b) that he could be taken to the mental ward. PO Ryan heard § 87(2)(b) ask for PO Jewels' name but could not recall if he asked for her shield number. He could not recall what PO Jewels' response was at all. PO Ryan did not interact with § 87(2)(b) at any point.
