With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosure: the People are aware that during the time Police Officer Vincent Iovine has been employed by the New York City Police Department:

1. In September 2019, the officer received a substantiated allegation for "failure to provide medical care," and "failure to notify."
2. In December 2018, the officer received a substantiated allegation for "failure to safeguard-not vouchered prisoner prop-jewelry," and "failure to prepare report- property clerk invoice."
3. In April 2019, the officer received a substantiated allegation for "wrongfully failed to seek medical treatment for an intoxicated person," and "having become aware of an allegation of misconduct against another member of the service, wrongfully failed to report said allegation to the internal affairs bureau," and as a result forfeited 3 vacation days.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED] during office hours.

Sincerely,
