Case Summary

On January 1, 2014, SGT Khandakar Abdullah of PSA 7 called the command center to report his interaction with § 87(2)(b). The complaint was referred to the CCRB on January 7, 2014 via IAB Log 14-0212.

The initial complaint provided § 87(2)(b) mailing address. Three letters were sent to § 87(2)(b) on January 17, 2014, February 4, 2014, and March 6, 2014. These letters were not returned to the CCRB by the US Postal Service. A Lexis Nexis search confirmed § 87(2)(b) address, but did not provide any telephone numbers. The search did identify a possible e-mail address. Two e-mails were sent to this address on February 5, 2014 and February 13, 2014. They were not returned as undeliverable. A phone number was listed on § 87(2)(b) arrest report. Five calls were placed to this number between February 26, 2014 and March 11, 2014. Three of these calls were unanswered. The two other calls were answered by § 87(2)(b) mother, who confirmed his address and said that she would give him a message. § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB on March 6, 2014. He confirmed his contact information, but said that he was not sure if he wanted to pursue an investigation at this time. He said that he would call back at a later date. Further attempts to contact § 87(2)(b) were unsuccessful. A New York City Department of Correction search confirmed that § 87(2)(b) is not currently incarcerated. § 87(2)(g)
