Comments Based upon my investigation I was unable to determine whether or not this incident occurred. I have made multiple attempts contact the complainant so I could discuss this incident with her. After reviewing the record, they indicate that the officers responded to the location but were unable to make contact with the complainant. The officers, tried the callback, which did not accept incoming calls and the officers rang the door bell and knocked on the front door. The complainant is alleging that the officers did not respond to her call in a timely manner. Unfortunately a "10-52" Family Dispute is not a high priority job. Therefore officers must have been responding to priority jobs first.
