Synopsis

On September 2, 2010, § 87(2)(b) and an anonymous complainant (who later identified herself as also being § 87(2)(b)) each called IAB to file complaints, which were numbered 10-44248 and 10-44245, respectively. Those complaints were received by the CCRB on September 8, 2010, with the latter complaint being numbered 201012260 and then subsequently closed as a duplicate and incorporated into this case, CCRB number § 87(2)(b).

On September 2, 2010, § 87(2)(b) was arrested for § 87(2)(b). During the course of his arrest, he was hit against an inanimate object and was spoken to discourteously by a white male officer in plainclothes. The arresting officer was PO Bilal Ates of Brooklyn North Gang. According to § 87(2)(b) who spoke with the undersigned via telephone on September 13, 2010, there were only two officers present at the incident, a black male and a white male, and only the white male used force against him. § 87(2)(g)

On September 13, 2010, § 87(2)(b) agreed via telephone to appear at the CCRB on September 22, 2010. He missed his scheduled appointment and provided no explanation for his doing so. He was sent a missed-appointment letter on the same day. On September 23, 2010, after having received a phone call from the undersigned, § 87(2)(b) called the investigator and rescheduled his appointment for September 27, 2010. However, he did not appear and made no attempt to explain his absence.

According to the NYC Department of Corrections Website, § 87(2)(b) is not currently incarcerated. § 87(2)(g)
