Recommendations

Allegation A – PO Keith Chatterton refused to provide his name and shield number to § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) passed PO Chatterton and PO McLeish on the right, which was illegal, and then was issued a summons by PO Chatterton.

When § 87(2)(b) asked PO Chatterton for his name and shield number, he told her “it will be on the ticket” and then walked away. His name was completely illegible (despite everything else on the summons being handwritten legibly), in fact, it appears as though his name only has two letters as opposed to the ten letters in “Chatterton” (encl. 8A). Moreover, there is no section on a summons for an officer’s shield number; neither did PO Chatterton write it anywhere else. Although PO Chatterton did not recall whether he gave his name and shield number verbally, there is willful obfuscation implicit in telling § 87(2)(b) that his name and shield number “will be on the summons” while the name is illegible and the shield number is left off. § 87(2)(g)
