With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

A review of Police Officer Girard Moscato's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On October 15, 2019, Police Officer Girard Moscato had a substantiated departmental investigation for failing to activate his body worn camera. The CPI did not list what disciplinary actions were taken as a result of the above-described conduct.
2. On June 25, 2019, Police Officer Girard Moscato had a substantiated departmental investigation for failing to take police action, abuse of authority for threatening the use of force, threatening to use force, discourtesy (words), and for additional information with regards to a prior activity log. The CPI did not list what disciplinary actions were taken as a result of the above-described conduct.
3. On March 30, 2018, Police Officer Girard Moscato had a substantiated departmental investigation for failing to safeguard department equipment, namely, a restricted use parking permit, which went missing. He received a Schedule B Command Discipline.
4. On May 28, 2006, Police Officer Girard Moscato was temporary suspended while pending an internal investigation for his failure to safeguard a prisoner. On July 20, 2006, the allegations were substantiated pursuant to a departmental investigation which resulted the filing of charges and specifications. He pled guilty to the charges and specifications and was placed on dismissal probation for one (1) year and forfeited a total of forty (40) vacation days for his conduct, namely: for failing to safeguard a
