DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department deemed substantiated an allegation that on August of 2017, ADAM KEEGAN, having been dispatched to a liquor store where another member of the department was creating a disturbance, had identified himself as a police officer, and acted in a threatening and menacing manner toward the manager, ADAM KEEGAN, having been made aware of such misconduct by such other member of the department, failed to notify the New York City Police Department's Internal Affairs Bureau.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on October 24, 2018, ADAM KEEGAN did create an incomplete and/or inaccurate property clerk invoice and that there was an invoice discrepancy of marijuana.
3. ADAM KEEGAN has currently pending before the New York City Police Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) three Physical Force allegations, and three Abuse of Authority allegations for Search of a Person, Stop and a Vehicle Search in a complaint filed on January 24, 2020, for an incident that occurred on January 10, 2020.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Two of these are online databases maintained by the New York City Police Department (NYPD) (<https://nypdonline.org/link/1026>) and the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page>).

Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory. For some NYPD disciplinary matters in which a departmental trial was held for an officer, the decision in the trial is included in the NYPD database under the "Documents" tab for that officer.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
