Case Summary

Capt. Benjamin Gurley of the 42nd Precinct called IAB on July 7, 2012, and filed this complaint on behalf of § 87(2)(b) generating the original log number 12-36282. The CCRB received the complaint on July 16, 2012.

Capt. Gurley reported that on July 7, 2012, at approximately 2:20 a.m., § 87(2)(b) was arrested and brought to the 42nd Precinct stationhouse in the Bronx, located at 830 Washington Avenue, because he had an open warrant. PO Mauricio Thomas was his arresting officer. In the cell area, PO Thomas insisted that § 87(2)(b) surrender his baseball cap. § 87(2)(b) swung his arms to keep PO Thomas away. PO Thomas pushed § 87(2)(b) into a glass window, and § 87(2)(b)'s left arm went through the glass, causing a deep laceration to his left arm, for which he received stitches and surgery was recommended (Allegation A). He was treated at § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

The complaint arrived without contact information for § 87(2)(b). The undersigned investigator queried for an arrest report for § 87(2)(b) and one was not located even though various queries were performed. The investigator contacted the IAB investigator assigned to the case, Sgt. Neil Seigel, and he did not know § 87(2)(b)'s contact information nor did he locate an arrest report for him. The investigator requested a SPRINT report and a UF 61 for § 87(2)(b) and the query yielded negative results. The investigator received the results of a LexisNexis query and it yielded a possible address, but no telephone number, for § 87(2)(b). The investigator mailed two please call letters to § 87(2)(b) one on August 17, 2012, and one on August 29, 2012. Neither was returned by the USPS as undeliverable. On September 4, 2012, and on October 4, 2012, the investigator queried the NYC Department of Correction web site and it did not indicate that § 87(2)(b) was incarcerated. § 87(2)(g)
