Case Summary

On December 7, 2020, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint by phone with IAB, generating original log #20-28309 (BR01). The CCRB received the complaint on December 21, 2020.

On December 7, 2020, at approximately 1:03 a.m., in front of 915 Sutter Avenue in Brooklyn, Sergeant Sean Gaynor and Police Officers Griffin Rosen, Nicholas Salvadori, and Jason Kwan, all from PSA 2, stopped § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle as he and his girlfriend, identified only as § 87(2)(b) were sitting in a no-parking zone (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). Sgt. Gaynor frisked and allegedly searched § 87(2)(b) (Allegations B–C: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). Sgt. Gaynor supervised a search of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle (Allegation D: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). Sgt. Gaynor allegedly interfered with § 87(2)(b)'s ability to record by removing his cellphone from his hand (Allegation E: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). PO Rosen, PO Kwan, and PO Salvadori allegedly refused to provide business cards to § 87(2)(b) (Allegations F–G: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g); Allegation H: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). PO Kwan and PO Salvadori refused to provide their names and shield numbers to § 87(2)(b) (Allegations I–J, § 87(2)(g); Allegations K–L: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). Sgt. Gaynor twice told § 87(2)(b) to “shut the fuck up” (Allegation M: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g)). PO Rosen, PO Salvadori, and PO Kwan allegedly told § 87(2)(b) to “shut the fuck up” (Allegations N–O: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g); Allegation P: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g)). Sgt. Gaynor allegedly called § 87(2)(b) a “pussy” (Allegation Q: Offensive Language, § 87(2)(g); Allegation R: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g)). Sgt. Gaynor allegedly slammed § 87(2)(b)'s car door into his body several times (Allegation S: Force, § 87(2)(g)). Sgt. Gaynor allegedly seized § 87(2)(b)'s car keys and ID (Allegation T: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). The officers did not arrest or summons § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b) § 87(4-b), § 87(2)(g).

The investigation obtained BWC footage (BR02-05, summarized at BR06-09). The officers deactivated their BWCs prior to the completion of the incident. However, the investigation also obtained cellphone footage from § 87(2)(b) (BR23-24, summarized at BR25), which captured the portion of the incident after the officers deactivated their BWCs. The investigation also obtained stationhouse surveillance footage, which was not relevant to this incident (BR10-15, summarized at BR16).

Sgt. Gaynor has since been reassigned to the Harbor Unit, and PO Kwan had been reassigned to Gun Violence Suppression Division Zone 1. PO Salvadori is no longer a member of the NYPD.

On September 9, 2021, this case was reassigned from Inv. Conor O’Shea to the undersigned after Inv. O’Shea’s departure from the agency. This investigation was delayed by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sean Gaynor stopped the vehicle in which § 87(2)(b) and an individual were occupants.

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sean Gaynor frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sean Gaynor searched § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (D) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sean Gaynor searched the vehicle in which § 87(2)(b) and an individual were occupants.

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b)'s car was in a no-parking zone, which was marked by a clear "No Parking Anytime" sign. The rear of his vehicle was also just beside the beginning of a bus stop with its own "No Standing" sign. It is also undisputed that Sgt. Gaynor remarked upon there being an odor of marijuana in the car during the incident. It is further undisputed that Sgt. Gaynor frisked § 87(2)(b) as he exited the car, and that he supervised as other officers searched the vehicle and its trunk. The officers did not discover any marijuana or other contraband. These allegations are all pleaded against Sgt. Gaynor as he was the supervisor in charge of the team of officers.

§ 87(2)(b) provided testimony in his initial IAB complaint (BR01) and his CCRB interview (BR17). § 87(2)(g) He testified in his CCRB interview that he had been smoking marijuana approximately one hour before the incident while dressed in the same clothing as he later wore during the incident. He denied, however, that his car smelled like marijuana. He maintained that, while he did use marijuana frequently, he also took steps to mask the odor because he frequently used his vehicle to transport his children. He also alleged that Sgt. Gaynor searched him after frisking him.

As noted above, Sgt. Gaynor's BWC footage (BR02, at approximately 01:00) shows that he told § 87(2)(b) the vehicle smelled of marijuana at the beginning of the stop. Sgt. Gaynor testified to that effect in his CCRB interview, which took place nearly a year after the incident (BR18). Sgt. Gaynor also testified that he saw the smoked end of a "blunt" in the vehicle's ashtray, and he testified that he frisked § 87(2)(b) and supervised the search of the vehicle in order to find more marijuana. Sgt. Gaynor testified that he used his discretion to warn § 87(2)(b) instead of issuing him a parking summons.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (E) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sean Gaynor interfered with § 87(2)(b)'s use of a recording device.

§ 87(2)(b) testified that one of the officers took his phone during the stop, so he asked Sgt. Gaynor why he could not have his phone and asked the officer to return it. Sgt. Gaynor told him that he was detained and was not supposed to be using his phone. § 87(2)(b) believed that Sgt. Gaynor restricted his right to record the police in a public place by taking his phone.

However, the collective BWC footage (BR02-05) shows that the officers never confiscated § 87(2)(b) cellphone. The footage shows that § 87(2)(b) held his cellphone throughout the incident, and the officers never told him that he could not hold his phone or could not film during the incident. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Griffin Rosen failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.

Allegation (G) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Jason Kwan failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.

Allegation (H) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Nicholas Salvatori failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.

Allegation (I) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Jason Kwan refused to provide his name to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (J) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Jason Kwan refused to provide his shield number to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (K) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Nicholas Salvatori refused to provide his name to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (L) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Nicholas Salvatori refused to provide his shield number to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified that Sgt. Gaynor provided his business card upon request. § 87(2)(b) later specifically asked PO Kwan, PO Rosen, and PO Salvatori for their business cards once the interaction became more contentious. Sgt. Gaynor told him that only he was required to give a card because he was the supervisor. PO Kwan, PO Rosen, and PO Salvatori then quickly stated their shield numbers to § 87(2)(b) and they refused to repeat them when § 87(2)(b) asked them to do so.

The BWC footage shows that § 87(2)(b) never specifically requested business cards from anyone other than Sgt. Gaynor, and also does not show PO Kwan, PO Rosen, and PO Salvatori all stating their shield numbers to him. The footage shows that § 87(2)(b) did request shield numbers at multiple points. Sgt. Gaynor's BWC (BR02, 04:55) shows that he asked, "Can I get badge numbers now, please?" PO Salvatori said, "Yeah, you'll get our badge number, don't worry about it" (see his BWC footage at BR04, 04:48). PO Kwan also told § 87(2)(b) "Yeah sure, you can have everything. You can have my business card" (see his BWC footage at BR05, 04:40). Sgt. Gaynor continued to order § 87(2)(b) to get back into his vehicle and assured him he would provide his shield number once § 87(2)(b) sat back in the driver's seat. § 87(2)(b) later said, "I want badge numbers. I want every one of you guys' badge numbers and names." All four officers were within earshot at the time. PO Kwan replied, "You can have that," but did not state his name or shield number. Sgt. Gaynor then provided his business card and noted that it bore his name and shield number. § 87(2)(b) later pointed at PO Rosen and said, "I want his dick-headed badge number too" (BR03, 06:30). PO Rosen clearly and correctly stated his shield number and name in response.

§ 87(2)(b)'s cellphone footage (BR24) does not show any additional requests for business cards, names, or shield numbers, and does not show any officer stating his name or shield number.

PO Kwan was not interviewed until approximately 15 months after the incident (BR19). He could not recall if § 87(2)(b) requested officers' names and shield numbers, though he thought § 87(2)(b) "probably" did so. He recounted that he offered a business card to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) when § 87(2)(b) became irate. He could not recall if § 87(2)(b) took the business card. He could not recall if he ever verbally provided his name and shield number to § 87(2)(b). Reviewing the BWC footage did not refresh PO Kwan's recollection regarding whether he ever stated his name or shield number to § 87(2)(b).

The investigation was not able to interview PO Salvatori before he left the NYPD.

§ 87(2)(g)

Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09 (BR31) requires that officers courteously and clearly state their names and shield numbers upon request.

As Sgt. Gaynor was supervising the incident and provided his business card to § 87(2)(b) and as video footage showed that § 87(2)(b) never specifically requested business cards from PO Rosen, PO Kwan, or PO Salvatori, § 87(2)(g)

The footage showed that § 87(2)(b) requested names and shield numbers from PO Rosen, PO Kwan, and PO Salvatori. PO Rosen provided his information, but PO Kwan and PO Salvatori failed to do so. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (M) Discourtesy: Sergeant Sean Gaynor spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (N) Discourtesy: Police Officer Jason Kwan spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (O) Discourtesy: Police Officer Griffin Rosen spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (P) Discourtesy: Police Officer Nicholas Salvatori spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (Q) Offensive Language: Sergeant Sean Gaynor made remarks to § 87(2)(b) based upon the gender of § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (R) Discourtesy: Sergeant Sean Gaynor spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified that both he and the officers began using profane language at the conclusion of the incident. He told them they looked like "dickheads" for searching his car unlawfully. PO Salvatori, PO Kwan, and PO Rosen all told § 87(2)(b) to "shut the fuck up." Sgt. Gaynor said, "Alright, we'll be dickheads, we'll be dickheads." § 87(2)(b) told Sgt. Gaynor, "Get the fuck out of here." Sgt. Gaynor asked § 87(2)(b) what he wanted to do, § 87(2)(b) asked him the same, and § 87(2)(b) then told Sgt. Gaynor he was "not going to do shit." Sgt. Gaynor replied, "Alright, whatever, pussy." § 87(2)(b) called Sgt. Gaynor a "pussy" in response. § 87(2)(b) and Sgt. Gaynor continued arguing back and forth. § 87(2)(b) told Sgt. Gaynor to shut up. In response, Sgt. Gaynor said, "Shut the fuck up." § 87(2)(b) continued calling the officers "dickheads," and Sgt. Gaynor became angrier and yelled, "I can't move because your fucking door is in the way." § 87(2)(b) told the officers to leave again, and Sgt. Gaynor asked, "You want me to fucking go? You want me to go?" Sgt. Gaynor then began trying to close § 87(2)(b)'s driver's door (see Allegation S below), and told him, "Get in your car and sit the fuck down."

§ 87(2)(b) only knew § 87(2)(b)'s first name and phone number. The investigation eventually reached a woman at that number who said she had recently acquired it and knew nothing of this incident. Absent additional information, the investigation could not identify or locate § 87(2)(b).

The video footage confirms that § 87(2)(b) and the officers got into a verbal altercation at the conclusion of the incident. The officers had stopped their vehicle directly beside the driver's side of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle, and he remained standing in the area beside his open driver's door. PO Salvadori's BWC footage (BR04, at 06:40) shows that PO Rosen returned § 87(2)(b)'s ID and told him to have a good night. § 87(2)(b) replied, "You too. Get the fuck up out of here and go bother somebody else." PO Rosen walked away, and § 87(2)(b) turned to Sgt. Gaynor and said, "What you still here for? I can stay right here." Sgt. Gaynor walked within arm's length of § 87(2)(b) and replied, "How am I going to get in my car?" PO Salvadori told § 87(2)(b) "We need you to move your car so we can get to our door." § 87(2)(b) replied, "Don't face up on me, nigga, I'm not scared of you." Sgt. Gaynor said, "Shut the fuck up," and § 87(2)(b) replied, "So what you gonna do? So do something!" Sgt. Gaynor told him to "shut the fuck up" again. § 87(2)(b) yelled, "Do something! Do something!" Sgt. Gaynor then said something inaudible, and § 87(2)(b) replied, "I can be a pussy." None of the videos clearly capture Sgt. Gaynor's inaudible statement, including § 87(2)(b)'s cellphone footage (BR24).

Sgt. Gaynor testified that he could not recall if he, or any other officer, told § 87(2)(b) to "shut the fuck up" or used the word "pussy," and viewing the video footage did not refresh his recollection.

Based upon the video footage, it is apparent that PO Rosen, PO Kwan, and PO Salvadori did not all tell § 87(2)(b) to "shut the fuck up" as he alleged. The footages does not capture any of them using profane or foul language with him. The footage also contradicts § 87(2)(b)'s account of Sgt. Gaynor using the word "dickheads," referring to his "fucking door," telling him to "sit the fuck down," or asking, "You want me to fucking go?" The footage does show that Sgt. Gaynor twice told him to "shut the fuck up." The footage is inconclusive as to whether Sgt. Gaynor ever used the word "pussy." § 87(2)(b) did appear to use it in response to something Sgt. Gaynor said, but § 87(2)(b) also alleged numerous uses of profane language which were contradicted by video footage, and § 87(2)(b) also alleged that Sgt. Gaynor used the word "dickheads" when § 87(2)(b) was the only person to use that word.

The NYPD is committed to accomplishing its mission of protecting the lives and property of all citizens of New York City by treating every citizen with compassion, courtesy, professionalism, and respect. Officers must "maintain a higher standard of integrity than is generally expected of others." Patrol Guide Procedure 200-02 (BR26). The NYPD's disciplinary decisions "have consistently held that when a police officer uses an otherwise impolite word during a stressful street encounter where that officer is attempting to maintain control of the situation, the police officer's verbal slip does not rise to the level of actionable misconduct. NYPD Disciplinary Case No. 76927/04 (2004) (BR27).

Sgt. Gaynor did not use most of the profane language alleged by § 87(2)(b) but he did twice tell him to "shut the fuck up." § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) The officers had effectively completed their police business by that point and merely needed to leave the scene. § 87(2)(g)

The video footage showed that PO Rosen, PO Kwan, and PO Salvadori did not use the alleged profane language. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (S) Force: Sergeant Sean Gaynor hit § 87(2)(b) against a vehicle.

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that, when Sgt. Gaynor began saying, “You want me to fucking go, you want me to go,” Sgt. Gaynor tried to close the driver’s door of § 87(2)(b)’s vehicle onto him. § 87(2)(b) was still standing in the area beside the open door at the time. Sgt. Gaynor struck the door against § 87(2)(b) approximately five or six times, and § 87(2)(b) described the force with which Sgt. Gaynor struck him as “mad hard.” § 87(2)(b) held his ground and braced against the impact of the door.

Sgt. Gaynor does not strike the door against § 87(2)(b) in any of the BWC footage, but all the BWC clips end midway through his confrontation with § 87(2)(b)’s cellphone footage (BR24, 00:04) captures Sgt. Gaynor say, “Get out of my way,” to § 87(2)(b) then rotate his torso towards § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) takes a step backwards toward his vehicle, as if he is being moved or pushed backwards, and says, “Yo, get off of me! Stop pushing my car! Stop pushing!” Sgt. Gaynor says, “You wanna get out of the way?” § 87(2)(b) says, “No, you the one moving my fucking car!” Sgt. Gaynor steps past § 87(2)(b) and enters the front passenger seat of the officers’ vehicle. Sgt. Gaynor does not repeatedly strike § 87(2)(b) hard with the vehicle door.

Sgt. Gaynor recounted that § 87(2)(b) was agitated and standing in a position which made it difficult for him to enter his own vehicle. He did not recall if he used any force against § 87(2)(b) if he pushed him, or if he repeatedly struck him hard with the vehicle’s door.

Based upon the video footage, the investigation determined that Sgt. Gaynor did not use force against § 87(2)(b) in the manner alleged. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (T) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sean Gaynor seized § 87(2)(b)’s property.

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that Sgt. Gaynor took his car keys and his ID when the officers left the scene. § 87(2)(b) did not realize until he got back in his car and tried to start it. § 87(2)(b) eventually called 911 and the officers returned to the location and gave his keys and ID to his cousin, as § 87(2)(b) did not want to interact with the officers. § 87(2)(b) believed that Sgt. Gaynor deliberately took his keys and ID.

PO Rosen’s BWC video (BR03) shows that he obtained § 87(2)(b)’s keys and used them to open the vehicle’s glove compartment. At 06:40, PO Rosen directly returned § 87(2)(b)’s ID to him at the conclusion of the incident, shortly before § 87(2)(b)’s confrontation with Sgt. Gaynor. It is unclear if PO Rosen still had the keys at that point, but he did not appear to give them to another officer in the footage.

Sgt. Gaynor testified that PO Rosen accidentally left the location with § 87(2)(b)’s keys and forgot he had them, and PO Kwan similarly testified that it was accidental. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

The video footage disproves § 87(2)(b)'s claim that Sgt. Gaynor left with his ID, § 87(2)(g).
