Synopsis

On April 14, 2006, Sergeant Carlton Suddler from the 75th Precinct called IAB to report that officers Bilal Ates and Angelo Petkovits observed a male assaulting a female on the corner of Pennsylvania and New Lots Avenue. Officer Ates chased the male, later identified to be § 87(2)(b) of § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn, and during the pursuit both Officer Ates and § 87(2)(b) fell on broken glass. § 87(2)(b) sustained injuries to his head, and Officer Ates injured his finger. Officer Ates and § 87(2)(b) were treated at § 87(2)(b) pital and later released. § 87(2)(b) was charged with § 87(2)(b). The female was identified by the IAB log to be § 87(2)(b) of § 87(2)(b). It should be noted that no civilian, neither § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint. It was generated as a result of the injuries sustained during the arrest.

On May 12, 2006, in response to two please call letters, § 87(2)(b) contacted the undersigned investigator and provided a statement that was consistent with the narrative that appeared on the IAB log. § 87(2)(b) informed the undersigned investigator that he could be reached at a number other than the one that appears on the BADS report, and did not mention any other numbers at which he could be reached, including the one that appears on the BADS report. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) An interview appointment was scheduled for May 16, 2006. § 87(2)(b) failed to appear for this appointment and did not call in advance to cancel or reschedule. On May 18, a missed appointment letter was sent to § 87(2)(b)'s address. On May 22nd, 24th, 25th and 30th, the undersigned investigator called the phone number that § 87(2)(b) provided and at which § 87(2)(b) stated that he could be reached. When dialing this number, a recorded message stated that the customer was unavailable. Another missed appointment letter was sent on May 22, 2006. No letters have been returned to the CCRB. On May 24, 2006, the undersigned investigator searched MetroSearch for a phone number associated with § 87(2)(b)'s address with no results. § 87(2)(g)
