Case Summary

On April 23, 2015, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via email. On April 24, 2015, a 'please call' letter was mailed to § 87(2)(b) and has not been returned by the United States Postal Service. On April 25, 2015, a 'please call' email was sent to § 87(2)(b). On April 27, 2015, § 87(2)(b) replied to this email and asked that the undersigned call him. On the same day, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) and left a message on his voicemail. § 87(2)(b) returned the call and the undersigned informed him that without an incident date, the CCRB could not move forward with his complaint. § 87(2)(b) stated that he understood and that he did not wish to pursue the complaint further. § 87(2)(b) informed the undersigned that he only wished to file the complaint so that the city had a record of the incident. § 87(2)(g)
