Disclosure:

In 2018 and 2019, Criminalist Robert McLean submitted vouchers to two agencies, who administer a program through which individuals receive Medicaid or insurance funds to provide homecare for relatives. Criminalist Mclean submitted vouchers for purportedly caring for his [REDACTED] and his [REDACTED]. The signatures on the submitted vouchers match the sign-in log signatures for Criminalist McLean at the NYPD Lab where he worked. In the vouchers Criminalist McLean listed the times during which he supposedly provided care to the respective clients. NYPD compared the vouchers against NYPD's attendance records which revealed multiple instances where the times that Criminalist McLean had been working at the NYPD Laboratory overlapped with the times that he, at least according to vouchers, was supposedly caring for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

In light of its investigative findings, the NYPD placed Criminalist McLean on administrative leave.
