With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

The People are aware that during the time he/she has been employed by the New York City Police Department, Officer Lesly Thevenot has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in several federal civil lawsuits.

- 1) Lamendula v. Thevenot, et al: 1:13-cv-07006-FB-RML: The case settled for an undisclosed amount, in 2014, and dismissed without admission of wrongdoing.

In the cases that settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal with prejudice was filed with the respective court, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated.

A review of the officer's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On February 12, 2020 Officer Thevenot had a substantiated departmental investigation for failure to safeguard department property, a cellular telephone and was issued a schedule "B" command discipline.
