DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) noted the following misconduct: On November 16, 2018, DANIEL WYNNE: i. did not prepare a memobook entry when required to do so, and ii. had improperly used his bodyworn camera in that he did not activate his camera when required to do so.
2. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated an allegation that DANIEL WYNNE was discourteous to a civilian on July 6, 2019 in that he told that person to “get in the fucking car” and to “get in the God damn car.”

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
